

to outface any shame. I believe that the Liberal Gang were about much surprised at their success as we were. or as George P. Smith was when he found he really had succeeded in getting a jury to acquit him on the charge of theft! Those of them whom I know were any thing but jubilant looking till after the event.
They had a spell of worry anyway - like any criminal on trial!

I wonder what the outside of Canada Comment will be and what the inward unexpressed thought of bystander Dominions & others? Surely the Low Tariff men will be able to convert MEXK and try the effect on Canada at large of an approach to free trade and then we shall see -

But when all is said & done I find my self more disgusted.

MEIGHEN PAPERS, Series 4 (M.G. 26, I, Volume 144)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA