in the same category, have received it, and that there would appear to be no reason why Emery Boissineau should not have continued to receive it.

I further submit that, if through an oversight on the part of the Chief of the Reserve, or any other person authorized in the premises, Emery Boissineau's name was left off the list, and he has not received treaty money since that time, and therefore suffered an injustice, a technicality arising from such oversight should not preclude him from the admission of his claim.

I have the honour to be,

Faithfully yours
