

Pacific Railway Company's

ALL MESSAGES TAKEN BY THIS COMPANY ARE SUBJECT TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS

It is agreed between the sender of the following message and this Company that the said Company shall not be liable from failure to transmit or deliver, or for any error in the transmission or delivery of an unrepeated telegram, with the exception of its servants or otherwise, or for delays from interruption in the working of its lines, for errors in cypher or other errors from illegible writing, beyond the amount received for sending same. To guard against errors, the Company will receive for an extra payment of one-half the regular rate, and in that case it shall not be liable for damages beyond the amount received for sending and repeating.

Correctness in the transmission of messages can be insured by contract in writing, stating agreed amount of risk and premium thereon, at the following rates, in addition to the usual charges for repeating messages, viz:—One per cent for messages exceeding 1,000 miles, and two per cent for any greater distance. The Company, but will endeavor to forward the telegram if necessary to reaching its destination, but only as the agent of the sender and without liability therefor. This Company shall not be responsible for messages until the same are presented and accepted at one of its transmitting offices; if a message is sent to an office by one of the Company's messengers, he acts for that purpose as the sender's agent; if by telephonic, the person receiving the message acts therein as agent of the sender, being authorized to accept the same on conditions for the sender. This Company shall not be liable in any case for damages unless the same be claimed in writing, within sixty days after the receipt of telegram for transmission. No employee of the Company shall vary the foregoing.
