SUMMARY OF CHAPTER I - THE CCF SOCIALISTIC BLUEPRINT

Part Two - Continued.

Proposition 12: What about the CCF statement that it differs from other political parties in that it will provide the economic base which will make possible the payment of the promised benefits.

Proposition 13: Where would the world be if every new idea could only win support after it had ceased to be a new idea, and had to win the approval of governments elected by the people, CCF or any other kind?

Proposition 14: A most important element in the conduct of business is the element of good-will.

Proposition 15: How do the CCF propose to abolish private business and profit?
