ANNOUNCEMENTS.

At the Grand—
Marks Bros.—Jan. 23-30.

ALL NEXT WEEK.

London Advertiser says: Marks Bros. are paying their annual visit to London this week, and are filling the opera house every night. On Tuesday every seat was sold, as well as 250 standing room tickets, while at least 300 were turned away. For the prices charged Marks Bros. always put up a good show, and their company this time is stronger than ever. Some first-class specialties are given.

No company travelling to-day has a more enviable reputation than the well known and popular company bearing the name of Marks Bros. No. 1, who will appear at the opera house here all next week with Saturday matinee. It is an organization which is accepted throughout the country as a standard of excellence, and the reputation it has acquired during the last few years of unvarying success, will be more than sustained during the present season. The company is a large and well balanced one, containing in its roster some of the best artists in the theatrical profession. It is perfectly equipped with all special scenery and electrical effects necessary for a first-class performance, each play being presented with perfect scenery and beautiful costumes. The opening play will be The Emerald Isle. Between the acts there will be moving pictures, including the great train robbery, illustrated songs and strong specialties. Prices, 10, 15 and 25 cents. Plan now open.

International Bible Lesson for To-morrow.

The First Miracle in Cana.—John 2, 1-11.

Golden Text.—Whatever He saith unto you, do it.

Our reporter is the inspired John, the beloved disciple, who was one of the guests at this wedding in Cana, a village only a few miles from Nazareth, the home of Jesus, and He and His disciples are amongst those invited. His mother also is taking a prominent part. Jesus is no ascetic, but a man of the people, a mechanic. To be short of viands to-day at a wedding would be embarrassing, but according to Jewish custom customs would be a great disgrace. The Master and disciples, hungry and thirsty from their journey of 90 miles on foot, could help considerably to shorten their supply, and the Virgin therefore would naturally look to her Son to help these, her friends, out of their difficulty, and suggests that he should. She knows her Son is the son of God, the promised Messiah, and wished He should now be manifest as such to the people at this wedding. Mary has a lesson to learn that He is no longer to be controlled or directed by her, but that He is the Son of the Holy Jesus, no, not one, and she knows it right well, so instructs her waiters to do as her Son bids them. Jesus tells them to fill up the stone jars, which they kept their daily supply of water in, and the master of ceremonies pronounced it the best of wine.—Exod. 29, 40; Lev. 23, 13. The best wine was for God's altar and was a symbol of the blood of Jesus in the commemorative service of the passover and the Lord's supper. The miraculous abundance here furnished by our Lord is but a sample of His grace and a type of what those shall partake of at the marriage supper of the Lamb, who have washed their robes and made them white in his blood. This is one of the attractions of the occasion, the fact that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and that believing we might have life through His name.—John 20, 30-31.

SILVER WEDDING

On Friday evening, Jan. 18th, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Carnes, of Guilds, celebrated their silver wedding. Among those present from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. George Walker, brother of Mrs. Carnes, and present Reeve of Houghton Township, Norfolk Co., and Mrs. Loebe, sister of Mrs. Carnes, also from Houghton, along with a goodly number of relatives and nearby friends.

At the hour appointed to celebrate the 25 years anniversary the guests were invited to choose their partners and to dance. The most sumptuous tables that has been prepared in the vicinity of Guilds.

After justice being done to the good things provided by the hostess, one of the attractions was that the bride provided her guests with beautiful canned fruit put up by herself 25 years ago.

The company retired to the parlor, where an enjoyable time was spent in games and other amusements until the wee hours of the night. Then bidding Mr. and Mrs. Carnes good-bye, with best wishes for another 25 years of happy life, they retired to their several homes.

He who commits injustice is ever more wretched than he who suffers it.

Can Eat Anything Now.

How many Dyspeptics can say that?
Or perhaps you are dyspeptic and don't know it.

Have you any of these symptoms?

Variable appetite, a faint gnawing feeling at the pit of the stomach, unsatisfied hunger, a loathing of food, rising and souring of food, a painful load at the pit of the stomach, constipation, or are you gloomy and miserable? Then you are a dyspeptic. The cure is a careful diet; avoid stimulants and narcotics; do not drink at meals; keep regular habits; regulate the stomach and bowels with BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

Nature's specific for Dyspepsia.

Miss Laura Chicoine, Belle Anne, Que., says of its wonderful curative powers:—"Last winter I was very thin, and was fast losing flesh owing to the run-down state of my system. I suffered from Dyspepsia, loss of appetite and bad blood. I tried everything I could get, but to no purpose; then finally started to use Burdock Blood Bitters. From the first day I felt the good effect of the medicine, and am now feeling strong and well again. I can eat anything now without any ill after-effects. It gives me great pleasure to recommend Burdock Blood Bitters, for I feel it saved my life."
