

GENERAL.

The thanks of the Association are due to the proprietors of Arcadia, the Gazette and Herald newspapers for giving free copies throughout the year to the Reading Room.

A valuable addition to the Library has been made through the generosity of Mr. H. J. Tiffin of 24 volumes, including some works now out of print and extremely rare.

The Building is now lighted by Electricity and though the cost is greater than Gas the atmosphere is very much improved and the light fairly satisfactory.

The privileges of the Gallery were extended to the members of the School Teachers Convention in July; and to the members of the National Wholesale Druggists Association in September.

In accordance with By-Law No. 3, the names of Sir Donald A. Smith, K.C.M.G., and of the late Mr. J. W. Tempest, have been enrolled as Benefactors.

The Council has pleasure in nominating Miss Dow, Miss Jessie Dow, Mr. James Burnett, Mr. W. R. Elmenhorst, Mr. E. B. Greenshields, and Mr. James Ross, as Governors; Mrs. John McDougall, Mr. W. L. Maltby and Mr. H. J. Tiffin, as Life Members:—they being duly qualified.
