And what morality or what truth or honesty can be expected in the ranks of the common people when such frightful examples of immorality are daily paraded before their eyes? The scandal of the divorce court, the betting and gambling at races, the patronage given to the brutalities of the prize-ring by tilted aristocracy—all these, and worse, must have a debasing and degrading in-fluence that sooner or later must per-meate and corrupt the entire nation. But whatever excesses the young lords and baronial fledglings indulge in—whatever scandals are weekly laid at their door—surely the heir apparent, England's future monarch, ought to keep his hands out of the common trough. The details of the bacearat trial as brought out on sworn evidence before the public gaze exhibit the Prince of Wales as no better than any common gambler. Years ago his difficult to imagine. And what ment. the daily papers last week : The Rev. Dr. again expresses his indignation at the fact - which is not a fact, which never happened, and never can happen - that "Sir John Thompson is seeking to impose on that western Province a system of Separate schools." The Separate school system existed, both by law and practice, long before Sir John turned Catholic or was elected an M. P. The friends of Dr. Douglass sought by unconstitutional legislation to rob the Catholics of their catechism and compel the children to attend the proselytising establishments where they would soon learn to turn up the whites of their eyes and curse the religion of their fathers. THE way in which so-called non sectarian schools are conducted was recently beautifully "exemplified at Seattle, where the teacher, a non-sectarian, of course, required each of her pupils to write an essay on Religion. In instructing them on the subject she said : "The Episcopalians are nearly as bad as the Catholics, and the Catho-

There were this great century in which we live. a number of Catholic" children who had Stranger still, however, is the fact that to listen to this balderdash. Their parents were, of course, indignant : but unless the majority of the people are of different calibre from those of Boston, who sustained teacher Travers in his absurd teachings about Indulgences, the teacher will be sustained. As the Episcopalians were, however, among those insulted, offence was given to them as well, and the Protestants are also, to some extent, displeased at the teacher's conduct. Such teaching would, however, exactly suit the Canadian bogus Equal Righters, who, to a man, and woman too, sympathized with the Boston teacher who insulted over and over again his Catholic pupils, who formed one-half of the school. This is exactly the thing the Equal Righters would be glad to see in all the schools of Ontario, and it is for this reason that they would wish to deprive Catholics of Separate schools.

THE Presbyterian General Assembly which met recently at Detroit has issued a pronunciamento utterly condemning all games of "progressive euchre," an amusement which is, indeed, worthy of condemnation when it is made a game of gambling ; but it is sometimes, at all events, played at private parties, without stakes, merely for amusement, in which case the evil effects attributed to it by the Assembly do not follow. It would seem, there fore, that the Assembly is too sweeping in its pronouncement when it condemns it under all circumstances as if it were necessarily an evil, even when it is no more than a recreation. The resolu tion of the Assembly is as follows :

"This Assembly would affectionatel call upon all the members of our Church to so regard their obligations to Chris to see to it that they take no part in amusements which they cannot take in His name, and in view of the fact that the popular style of card-playing treated of in the preceding report known as progressive eachre has principally come into existence since any

Assembly has made deliverence upon the subject of card-playing, this Genera Assembly would bear earnest and protest against this prac solemn tice as hurtful to the spiritual life of the Church, as it produces divis ion in its social life which tends to

If it had not been for the consistent maintenance of Christian truth by the Cath olic Church there would not be even to-day a shred of Christianity remain ing in the creeds of Protestantism. The example of the Catholic Church consistently teaching Christian doctrine has hitherto kcpt Protestantism from reaching the bottom of the precipice of Deism or Atheism, towards which it has been tending ever since its establishment. But in spite of all this the Protestant system is now surely on the brink of the precipice down which sooner or later it must fall. But Catholicity will remain on its firm foundation.

The New Ministry.

Hon. J. J. C. Abbott is the new Premier of the Dominion. Mr. Abbott had an interview with His Excellency the Governor-General and at his request and after consultation with the members of the late Government, undertook the formation of a Ministry. The following announcement was handed to the press for publication : "In conformity with His Excellency's desire Mr. Abbott has undertaken the formation of a Cabinet, and this action in the matter has been decided upon after a full understanding with those of his colleagues who have been spoken of in connection with the Premiership, and with assurances from them of their cordial support.
