mber 30, 1920.

laster at arms

s and streams. to keep back

ke for wagons,

n dark.

e accident. tance, height, etc

ac or shelter.

ngue for trek cart vireless poles.

(hat on pole in

with lashings.

clothes line. ı camp. camp fire. ets for mother. rrying buckets of ndows in case of

r depth of water. ipport for door. opes.

trunk. trap door. nd tripping up nard and A. A at Nome, Al spent in the A e months of w icebound at I Strait, near Captain a native of the famous blond Esk ed that after tw that district he wa nd sod houses, ge, in East Cor d, and brought ry and other co ruins, CPLAINED IT.

addressing the chil ge school. children, I propose children, can anyon epitome is?" awful silence. The yzed the youngsters, went on: ldren, is, in its sig-onymous with sy-

THEM TO LAST.

had saved hard a with the money fully furnished hot d woman missed her out to him:—
70u, Thomas? Not on 9e!"

floor." carpet!" came in tone

lled it up!"-Western

ANADIA

A National Church of England Weekly

VOL. 47

TORONTO, OCTOBER 7th, 1920

NO. 41

A Penal Offence

COR any person or persons to allege or imply that persons lawfully married are not truly and sufficiently married ought to be made a penal offence throughout Canada.

This journal is convinced that this would provide the only effectual relief from violations of constitutional rights in the declarations and decisions of Roman Catholic ecclesiastical courts in the Province of Quebec regarding marriages between Roman Catholics and persons of other communions performed by lawful persons other than Roman Catholic clergy.