PRAYERS.

Samuel S. Poole, Esq. returned duly elected as member for the Township of Yarmouth, in the room of Samuel Marshall, Esq. deceased, took his seat, having previously taken the Oaths prescribed by Law, and subscribed the usual declaration at the Table of the House, in the presence of the Honorable Richard J. Uniacke, His Majesty's Attorney General, one of the Commissioners appointed by His Excellency the Lieutenant-Governor.

Then the House adjourned until to-morrow, at eleven of the clock.

PRAYERS.

Mr. Robie reported from the committee appointed to prepare an address in answer to His Excellency's Speech; that the committee had drawn up an address accordingly; and he read the address in his place, and afterwards delivered it in at the Clerk's Table, where it was read and is as follows;—

TO HIS EXCELLENCY LIEUTENANT-GENERAL

SIR JOHN COAPE SHERBROOKE,

Knight of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majesty's Province of Nova-Scotia, and its Dependencies,
Esq. Esq. Esq.

The Humble ADDRESS of the House of Representatives in General Assembly.

May it Please Your Excellency,

WE, His Majesty's Faithful Subjects, the Representatives of the Loyal People of Nova-Scotia, beg leave to thank your Excellency for your Speech at the opening of the present Sessions of the General Assembly.

The splendid Victories which have been obtained by the Arms of His Majesty and of His Allies, during the late campaign in Europe; and the recent successes in the Canadian Provinces, have afforded to the Inhabitants of this Colony a gratification equal to the importance of these events.

With whatever expectations of an easy conquest our American Enemies first invaded his Majesty's Dominions, we trust that the judicious arrangements of the British Commander in Chief, the valour and discipline of His Majesty's Troops,
