

or Acts in force in the United Kingdom, or in Great Britain or Ireland respectively, to the contrary notwithstanding.

IX. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passing of this Act, there shall be raised, levied and collected, paid unto His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, upon the importation of the several articles enumerated or described in the said Schedule marked (B) into any of His Majesty's colonies, plantations or islands in America or the West Indies, under the authority of this Act, from any port or place in Europe or Africa as aforesaid, the several duties of the customs as the same are respectively inserted, or described, and set forth in figures in the said Schedule marked (B.); and the same shall be raised, levied, collected, paid, and received under the management of the Commissioners of the Customs in England in such and the like manner and form, and by such and the like rules, ways, means and methods respectively, and under such penalties and forfeitures, as any other duties now payable to His Majesty, on goods, imported into any of the islands, plantations, colonies, or territories belonging to or under the dominion of His Majesty in America or the West Indies are or may be raised, levied, collected, paid, and recovered by any Act or Acts of Parliament now in force, as fully and effectually, to all intents and purposes as if the several clauses, powers, directions, penalties and forfeitures relating thereto, were particularly repealed, are again enacted in the body of this Act, and the produce of such duties shall be paid by the Collector of the Customs, to the Treasurer or Receiver General of the colony, province, or plantation in which the same shall be respectively levied, to be applied to such uses and purposes as may be directed by the authority of the respective General Courts, or General Assemblies of such colonies, provinces, or plantations.

X. And be it further enacted, That in case there shall be no General Courts or General Assemblies in the colony, province, or plantation in which the said duties shall have been levied and collected under the authority of this Act, the net proceeds of such duties shall then be applied and appropriated in such and the like manner and to such uses as any other duties levied and collected in any of His Majesty's colonies, provinces, or plantations in America or the West Indies, not having General Courts or General Assemblies, may now by any Act or Acts of Parliament, passed in Great Britain, or in the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or by any order of His Majesty in Council, or by any proclamation in His Majesty's name, be appropriated and applied.

XI. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where, by the Schedule marked (B), the duties imposed upon the importation of articles into His Majesty's colonies, plantations, or islands in America or the West Indies, are charged not according to the weight, tale, gauge, or measure, but according to the value thereof, such value shall be ascertained by the declaration of the Importer or Proprietor of such articles, or his known Agent or Factor, in manner and form following: (that is to say),

I A. B. do hereby declare, That the articles mentioned in the Entry, and contained in the Packages [here specifying the several Packages and describing the several marks and numbers, as the case may be] are of the value of Duties to be paid on articles enumerated in the schedule (B.) upon their importation into the colonies, &c.

Appropriation of net proceeds of duties in colonies where there are no general courts or assemblies.

How value of articles subject to ad valorem duty shall be ascertained.
