Good Books

By WALT MASON

There are so many helpful books, the books that truly pay, the useful books that drive the spooks of grief and care away, it's foolishness and worse, gadzooks, to pass away the time a-reading books that treat of crooks and fifty brands of crime. So many books are merely foam, made for the passing hour; and every tome you read at home should have a lifting power. The stuff you read should help you meet your duties everywhere; impel your feet along the street with vim to do and dare. Your books should help you do your grind, and to your labors waltz; and make you kind, and make you blind to other people's faults. Your books should teach you what is right, and also what is wrong, and help you fight like armored knight with battle-cry and song. They should make home a happy place, your wife the joy in chief, with not a trace upon her face of weariness or grief. So do not soak your spongy head in rubbish day by day, but read instead the books that spread some light upon your way. Read hefty books that hit the spot with fierce and forceful stroke; oh, turn your thought away from rot to truths that fairly smoke.

SPORTING COMMENT

By FREE LANCE

The Brantford Club has signed a new shortstop. President Nelson has not only signed him, but has bought him from the Lawrence Club of the New England League. His name is A. J. Tesch, and the local management has every assurance that he will fill the bill. There is no question about it. Shortstops McAuley, Shea or Ahern have not met expectations. Fans have seen it, and the management knows it. One of these boys may be kept for the outfield or for utility, but certainly none are good enough to fill Louie Courtney's shoes. There's no knocking these boys in this column, but Brantford wants a real ball team, without sympathy and without favor. President Nelson says we will get one, and get it before Ottawa opens here, May 7. So much for the position of shortstop.

Any fan who happened to be at the exhibition affair at the park yesterday could not have helped but have been impressed with the grand defence on the infield of Orcutt, Wagner and Ivers. These three are well known to all fans. Yesterday they appeared stars in their respective positions. That they have their jobs, clinched goes without saying. That they will make a great effort to bring a pennant to Brantford is but scant tribute to their prowess. The writer doesn't propose to pick out any one of this trio as an individual star. All are good. Wagner had a lot of work to do yesterday and won the plaudits of the crowd. What Orcutt did was finished. Ivers certainly will be a grand man this year, as evidenced by his clouting ability. But these three players require a shortstop, and they will make a grand infield.

As for the pitchers, out of the recruits Clermont is said to be the best. O'Reilly and Anders need more experience. This is not our opinion; but general report. Donovan, Collins and Coose are regulars, no question about that.

The catchers, Lamond, Chapdelaine, English and McCarthy, are an excellent lot, but fans at the ball park yesterday were unanimous that one Matty Lamond of hold-out fame was par excellence. The fight for a job is between Chapdelaine and English. We like them both. If noise is a factor in the fight for supremacy, Chapdelaine has it by a million majority. If the possibility of having a finished catcher, hard worker and good hitter within a short time is a factor, we would hand it to English. Frankly, we like them both, but prefer English. It is possibly only a matter of taste, and the presidential guy who holds the mortgage on the suits and franchise along with managerial advice is he who has the "ipse dixit in the matter.

When it comes to the outfield, we are only temporarily distressed. Kane can deliver. We know that. The only place Kane was ever criticized was from his own bleachers behind the dyke. For two years every sporting writer on the Canadian League circuit has admired his ability as an outfielder, also as a manager. The old boy has had so many encomiums passed his way in his experience, we can't waste any more space at present. He is Ambrose Kane—that's all. Buster Burrill only got out of bed on Monday. He is a grand ball, and we have seen no Red Sox try-out, Algernon or anybody else, who can take his place satisfactorily in centre. For the distress of Ottawa, May 7, we hope he lands O.K. in the middle garden. In right field our senses of appreciation were truly awakened yesterday by one Chathamite, Brundage. We have seen clouters from Taw, but not like the gink from the Kentish town. He clouted a home run, a two-bagger and a single in four times at bat, and gathered in three of the six wallops off the Cuban star mystifier. If that isn't going some for a try-out who is only a few hours from home, we don't want a cent. Down in New England we doubt if they make hitters like that. If this fellow Brundage can cover ground, we opine right here that Dufferin Slemm will have to hustle to catch on—and we like Dufferin's work on the ball field first rate for a lad. Take it from us (get the editorial "we"), Brundage is a vicious hitter, and if he sticks with the Red Sox, one Peanuckle will have to come across with more new dollars for home-runs than he thought there was in the peanut business when he made that crack for popularity, notoriety, or whatever you call it.

In sizing up the Red Sox thusly the Courier is endeavoring to hand out the dope. We are not tied up with any boost agreement, although it is foreign to our nature to do anything except boost. If there is any hammering to be done, now is the time to do it. At present it is not necessary, but the Red Sox boss will have to show a new shortstop, and a good one, Opening Day. If he does, he will probably have the pleasure of boosting the 1913 pennant flag on the at present unadorned pole behind the dyke. What a good short fielder would do to the Red Sox just now is just what Wagner did last year at second—make a sieve air-tight. Do you get us?

STRING NOT CUT SAYS PRESIDENT

Meal Tickets Still Holding Out for the Red Sox Recruits.

President Nelson when asked this morning if he had cut the string on any of his players replied decidedly in the negative. There is a feeling of unrest among some of the recruits who are quite honest about it and expect to secure membership in the International Order of the Tin Can almost immediately. Probably it will be Saturday night before there is anything doing. President Nelson is prodigal with meal tickets and believes much more in meals than in lost games later. However there will probably be an exodus on Sunday, next.

LIKE A RATTLE OF TIN PAILS

Spanish Jargon of the Cubans on Ball Field Yesterday.

The Cuban Stars are playing behind the dyke this afternoon and Pedrioso will pitch. He is said to be the greatest ball player ever turned out of Cuba. It was he who covered first base yesterday to the admiration of everybody. Like several others on the Cuban team Pedrioso is of big league calibre. The pitcher who worked yesterday will go up this year to one of the majors.

Manager Kane last night frankly admitted that the Cubans were great ball players. "They certainly can field, throw and run, but I have an idea they can't hit. At any rate let's see."

BOWLERS HAD A JOLLY TIME

Progressive Passtimers are Uging Holding of Labor Day Tournament.

A jolly lot of bowlers assembled at the Imperial hotel last night where a most enjoyable evening was spent in being the occasion of the annual smoker and euchre party of the Pastime Bowling Club. The officers of the club were on hand and offered the glad hand and welcome smile to the members, as they filed in. After a goodly number of members had arrived the party adjourned to the spacious dining room where euchre was indulged in. At the conclusion of the game the tally cards were gathered in and it was found that P. Alliman had secured the largest number of points, with S. Riley a close second.

The bowlers then partook of a dainty lunch provided by Miss Host W. Campbell. After justice had been done to the good things provided, the president of the club called the boys to order.

Mr. Hay announced that a movement had been started to hold a bowling tournament here on Labor Day, and was very much approved. A committee composed of F. S. Blain, C. T. Hay and A. P. Burley were appointed to co-operate with the other bowling clubs in the city in reference to the affair.

F. S. Blain will send notices to the city bowling clubs requesting them to send delegates to a meeting in connection with the tournament which is proposed to be held within ten days. The Brantford Courier and The Expositor each offered to donate a handsome trophy to be competed for at the Labor Day Tournament, if such is to take place. The bowlers are very grateful for the kind offers of the city papers.

Short speeches were made by Messrs. Inglis, Burns, Blain and others.

It was voted one of the jolliest nights in connection with this popular bowling organization.

Soft Ball

A meeting of the Soft Ball league was held in the Y.M.C.A. last evening when representatives of the six teams in the league were present namely, the Y.M.C.A., Beavers, G. S. and M. Nickle-Dymont, Dufferin Rifles and Ham and Notts.

Rules and regulations in connection with the league were drawn up and adopted.

Colonials Crowding Out Britons.

London Sportsman: The effect of the importation of colonial players by Northern union clubs is strikingly seen in the circumstances attending the transfer of W. Batten from the Hunslet to the Hull club. This transfer was completed Saturday afternoon. Hull paid a transfer fee of 600 pounds—a record for Northern union football—and the player, not being permitted summer wages under the union rules, receives a sum which works out to the old association maximum of four pounds a week all the year round. Batten had no real grievance against the Hunslet club. He took the stand that, being a Northern union international, he was as good a player as any colonial, and if the latter could come over here and receive a fat fee for signing, and live the life of a gentleman of leisure, he thought an English player (and a Yorkshireman), was entitled to equally good treatment, and he was going to have it. And I do not know that a single supporter of the Northern union can continue on Page Eight.

CUBANS ARE FINE PLAYERS

They Can Field, Hit, Throw and Coach in Great Style.

The Cuban star baseball team defeated the Red Sox by a score of 8-2 at the Agricultural Park yesterday afternoon because they were the best team and played better ball. Not any error was charged against the Stars and they certainly were stars. The visitors are on to all the tricks of the game and their playing was much admired by the local fans who journeyed to the ball park. Perera, who did the pitching for the Stars held the locals safe at all times and at no period of the game was he in trouble to any extent. He held the locals to four hits until the ninth innings when (Continued on Page 8)
