Women's Institute

The Oak Hill branch of the Women's Institute held their first meeting at the home of Mrs. Hudson Jennings, March 1st. Mrs. Jennings, the president, presided. The meeting opened by all singing "The Maple Leaf." The minutes were then read by the secretary, Mrs. J. Brethour, of Burford, district president, gave an address on institute work, which was both beneficial and interesting to those present. Miss Tempier gave a piano solo. Mrs. A. D. Muir of Burford, gave a very interesting talk on Red Cross work in Canada. Mrs. Brethour again spoke, and gave some very good suggestions about the carrying on of institute work. Mrs. Muir rendered several selections on the piano. A vote of thanks was then tendered Mrs. Muir and Mrs. Brethour for their kindness in addressing the meeting. Nineteen ladies joined.

Old Age Finds Its Greatest Comfort

in good eyesight. Reading or sewing are practically the only diversions of most old people, and unless they are able to enjoy these pastimes in comfort life holds but little for them.

Be sure that the "old folks" in your family have the opportunity to enjoy this blessing to the full. They cannot have it without good glasses—glasses selected at random or by "trying on" will not give it to them.

Bring them here and have an accurate examination of the eyes made. You may be surprised to find they had forgotten what really perfect vision is.
