IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Pte. Joseph R. Barr, who paid the supreme price at Vimy Ridge April 9th, 1917. Short and sudden was the call. Of one so dearly loved by all. The blow was great, the shock severe. We little thought his death so near. His memory is as dear to-day. As in the hour he went away. But he nobly answered duty's call. He gave his life, his best, his all. Mother and Brothers

DOMINION POLICE

OFFICER IS SHOT

Attempting to Arrest Man Near Espanola Under Milk Service Act

Sudbury, April 14.—Dominion Police Officer George McLeod was shot in the body and leg Friday night, when he attempted to arrest a French-Canadian named Whissel, near Espanola, under the Milk Service Act. The affair occurred at 1 o'clock, and it was 3 o'clock morning before medical aid reached him, and he is believed to be mortally wounded. McLeod has made several trips into the district to arrest Whissel, and was apparently attacked by an organized gang, in which, it is said, women took a hand and incited the men to violence. Inspector Storrie of the Provincial Police has called all his men onto the case, and has personally left for the scene, which is two and a half miles from Espanola.

In the First Shoot Against Galt

Scores of the Match and Sweepstakes

The first of the home and home shoots between the Eagle Gun Club and Galt was shot off at the local grounds on Saturday, resulting in the home team leading by 42 birds. It was an ideal day for trap-shooting and some excellent scores were the result. In the match, McRobb and McNeill of the local club were high with 49 out of a possible 50. The sweepstakes resulted in a three-cornered tie, McRobb, Marshall and Golden each obtaining the possible. The following are the scores:

Brant Ave. S.S. Anniversary

Sunday school anniversary services were held at Brant Avenue Methodist Church yesterday.

In the morning the Rev. J. D. Fitzpatrick, pastor of the church, preached a very able and instructive sermon to the children who were assembled in the body of the church.

In the afternoon at an open session of the school Captain the Rev. Grand Dr. Levell gave a talk on his experiences while absent overseas. He had with him the flag which he had used on all occasions during his absence and he told many interesting stories of what had happened to the flag during the past two years. Solos were given by Miss Hilda Oldham and Miss Laura Wilson.

In the evening Rev. Mr. Fitzpatrick preached a sermon to the parents. The sermon was very much enjoyed and appreciated by the large congregation present.

The Sunday school is in a most flourishing condition.

The annual supper and entertainment for the children will be held on Friday evening.

at least six times.

"You are certain of that?"

"You could not be mistaken?"

"No. It was not until after I had seen that that I became excited."

Dr. J. A. Phillips.

was next summoned to the stand, and stated that he performed the autopsy upon the body of the dead man. Several contused and lacerated bones had been found, as well as flesh wounds. The injuries could have been caused as described by the last witness.

Witness had been summoned to 33 Alfred street shortly before seven o'clock Sunday evening, and found Duncan and Isaac there. The former told him the latter had been struck by an automobile, and carried into the house.

When Duncan was conveyed to the police station, he admitted to Dr. Phillips that he had struck Isaac twice with his fist.

Witness was cross-questioned with some oaths by Mr. Kelly, as to the exact injuries sustained by Isaac's head, and a lengthy debate in medical phraseology ensued. The physician expressed his emphatic opinion that the injuries could not have been caused by fist blows alone.

"We have the head here if you wish to peruse it," said Dr. Phillips.

"Do not," replied Mr. Kelly.

"Will you please produce the apoplexy?" Mr. Kelly asked later.

"What kind of apoplexy do you mean?" queried the witness.

"Say, a central hemorrhage of the brain?"

"It might in some circumstances."

"Would there be concussion of the brain if the man were struck on the head while lying on the floor?"

"I believe so."

"Why not?"

"Concussion is caused by shaking of the brain."

"Is it?" queried Dr. Phillips.

"Is it not?" demanded Mr. Kelly.

"It might be," admitted the witness. He did not believe that fist blows could have caused Isaac's condition.

Witness had seen blood stains on the wall along the stairway leading from the third floor; also a quantity of blood on a bed on the third floor, and on the ceiling above the bed. The furniture in the room was not otherwise disarranged. The blood on the ceiling might lead to the belief that someone had been struck on the mouth while lying in bed. (The ceiling is very low).

Isaac died in a state of coma, as a result of violence.

Mr. Wilkes expressed a further desire for a committal. He pointed out that the charge would likely be reduced from murder to manslaughter when the case came before the judge. He offered to reduce the charge now.

The magistrate reserved his decision, and adjourned the court for lunch.

Commitment Asked.

A. J. Wilkes at this juncture asked for a committal. Mr. Kelly took objection, submitting that all the evidence in possession of the Crown should be brought forward at the preliminary hearing.

The defence would certainly benefit if the hearing were continued," admitted Magistrate Livingston, "but the Crown has asked for a committal, and I doubt whether I have authority to extend the hearing."

Mr. Wilkes expressed a further desire for a committal. He pointed out that the charge would likely be reduced from murder to manslaughter when the case came before the judge. He offered to reduce the charge now.

The magistrate reserved his decision, and adjourned the court for lunch.
