

JUVENILES AT HOCKEY

Play Like a Bunch of Old Veterans

Avery Team Wins From the Klondike Cycles by a Score of 4 to 3

The juveniles played hockey last night and to many of the spectators who had never before seen the kiddies on the ice the way they chattered around with the puck was but little short of a genuine revelation and the good judgment shown by both the Lawyers and Doctors in refusing to meet the juniors at once became apparent. Take either team and they would have given the professional gentlemen a run that they would not have forgotten in many moons. Though the Klondike Cycles were beaten they are by no means the poorer team. In fact they can play all around the Avery's, though it must be admitted the latter has the better defense. The forward line on the K. C. team is a wonder and the way they pass to each other and work combinations is a feat that does the eyes of the old hockey cranks good to see, considering, of course, that the players are all lads of 16 and under. George Delfel played several games this season with the City Eagles and though but a boy he can nurse that puck, carry it through a crowd and shoot with an accuracy that would suggest him having been a protégé of "Old Hoss" Randy. George Wallace is another on the line that is a good working partner for young Delfel. He is fast, level headed and in company with all the balance of the boys can stand all the rough house that comes his way. There is not a "quitter" in the entire bunch, notwithstanding frequent collisions and heavy checking. Chart Malby and Harvey Heath are also on the forward line with Delfel and Wallace.

The star on the Avery team was undoubtedly young Emil Forrest, goal; a diminutive little chap not as tall as a hockey stick is long, but he has a b'eye like a h'eagle and of several dozen tries he successfully shut out all with three exceptions: At one time during the first half the shots fairly rained in on him, some of them so hot they sizzled, but the youngest of the trio of athletic brothers was there with the goods every time. Jules Delfel played a good, hard game, but he makes the mistake of wanting to play all the game himself. If the puck came within a dozen yards of him and on the way passed two players he would yell for them to stand aside so he could get it. Hockey is not a one man game. Another thing about Delfel is that it is dangerous to be within a half mile of him when he lifts. Last night he sent the puck into the spectators' scores of times and it is the greatest wonder that some one was not injured.

Three goals were taken in the first half, two of them being so sensational that they would have been a credit to the Civil Service. The first was scored for the Avery's by Jules Delfel who lifted over half the length of the rink, dropping the puck squarely into the net. The crowd went wild at the trick, but a few moments later his brother George who is on the K. C. team far surpassed it in cleverness. He secured the puck near his own goal and by speed and good nursing carried it the full length of the rink. As he neared the goal he saw he was going to be checked and swerved off toward one corner. A scrub occurred in which he lost the rubber only to regain it again. There was a bunch in front of the goal and a shot would have been futile so he hustled the puck around back of the net, came to front and just as he reached the open corner made a quick shove and the goal was scored. It was the prettiest and most clever goal ever scored on the rink. Lloyd Hawley scored again for the Avery's making them 2 to 1 at the call of time. The second half was replete with good plays, both the Delfels, Malby, Wallace and Chester Davis making some excellent runs. George Delfel scored for the K. C.'s and so did Malby, while Jules Delfel and Prather piled up one each for the Avery's winning the game by a score of 4 to 3. George Kennedy acted as referee and comparatively speaking there was but very little off-side play. The following is the lineup.

Avery's—Goal, Emil Forrest; point, Fred Webber; coverpoint, Carl Gilbert; forwards, Chester Davis, Jules Delfel, Lloyd Hawley and Beau Prather. K. C.—Goal, Manly Mayhoad; point, Leander James; coverpoint, Willie Hanwell; forwards, George Delfel, Chart Malby, Harvey Heath and George Wallace.

New Immigration Law Washington, March 7.—The treasury department learned today, much to its surprise, that the new immigration law which was signed by the president today before congress, adjourned places the Philippines, Guam, Puerto Rico, Hawaii and other island possessions of the United States under the jurisdiction of the immigration bureau. The section which makes this extension reads: "That for the purpose of this act the words 'United States' used in the title as well as in the various sections of this act, shall be construed to mean the United States and any water, territory or other places now subject to the jurisdiction thereof." The immigration bureau has not heretofore had this jurisdiction and it was not the intention to make the extension so far as the department was concerned at this time. The effect of the section in question has been considered to the extent of having the matter passed upon by the legal authorities of the department, but this action will undoubtedly be taken later.

Jaunts of Statesmen Washington, March 7.—A majority of the members of the cabinet will take advantage of the present off-month in business and will go south on little jaunts of recreation. The plans of most of them have already been arranged.

The Hays are already south, the Shaws intend to face the same direction in the near future and the attorney-general contemplates a visit to Mrs. Knox down in Florida, although tonight he will be the guest of honor at a dinner in New York, of which Gen. H. L. Burnett will be the host.

Monday Secretary Moody will leave for Charleston, S. C., where he will board the Dolphin for a cruise of a month or so in the West Indies. He will be accompanied by Postmaster-General Payne, Senator Proctor, Representative Cannon, Representative Gillett, Judge Dunbar and Mr. J. H. Pearl of Massachusetts, Mr. Moody's law partner.

Secretary Root has gone to visit his family at Clinton, N. Y.

Shocked to Death Columbus, O., March 7.—In the sight of a hundred horrified onlookers Richard O. Powers, a fireman in the employ of the Bell Telephone Company, this afternoon fell across two live wires and was shocked to death in an instant.

A hook and ladder company had to be called to take the body from its deadly entanglement. It is supposed that while shifting his position on the pole to repair a switch box, Powers lost his hold and fell.

Washington, March 7.—Under the bill recently passed by congress to authorize the settlement of accounts of officers who served in the Spanish war, the treasury department will remove from its records thousands of dollars which are now charged to various officers. Supplies which were lost and unaccounted for remain on the books of the treasury department, charged to officers who were responsible for them. In many cases the officers were not to blame for the disappearance of the supplies.

Creditors of the National Securities Company of St. Louis, one of the trust investment companies that suffered in the recent run, have filed an application in the circuit court asking for the appointment of a receiver.

YOUNGSTERS RACE A MILE

Claim Sammie Agee Was Jobbed

Was Looked Upon as a Sure Winner—Fondness for Pop and Peanuts His Downfall

The mile race of the youngsters at the rink last night combined with the juvenile hockey match that followed drew quite a number of spectators who applauded the boys as they piled up lap after lap or fell on the turn and slid half the width of the ice before they could stop. Originally there were eleven entries, but Willie Welsh pulled out and at the time the race was ready to start Sammie Agee could not be found so that there were but nine contestants. It was rumored among the boys about the ice that one of the scratch chaps fearing Sammie because he was a dark horse and had a handicap of three laps had given him fifty cents just before the race was to come off to go and get a bottle of soda water and some peanuts, knowing full well that the race would be called before Sammie could get back and also that the speedy little colored chap would not have the power to resist the temptation to indulge in "his favorite dissipation," but the truth or falsity of the rumor could not be ascertained, and it will probably never be known whether Sammie was deliberately jobbed or not. At any rate he did not appear and there were fully half of the crowd had come expressly for the purpose of seeing him do a stunt that would have made the other racers look like thirty cents.

Hugh McDonald and Emil Forrest were scratch and the other seven were given a handicap all the way from 25 yards to two and one-half laps. Lawrence Mero received 25 yards, Myer Packer and Harry Robertson, 50 yards; Jimmie Fallon and Wallace McDonald, one lap; Lawrence Spencer, two laps, and Athol Macfarlane, two and one-half laps. They were all so arranged on the track that the start was made simultaneously with the crack of the pistol in the hands of W. H. Lyon, who acted as timekeeper and master of ceremonies. What was lacking on the part of the management or those interested in the skaters was that there was no one to coach the contestants or inform them how many laps they had gone. If young McDonald had pulled out earlier in the game it is thought he would have won easily though handicapped by two and a half laps. He also had the misfortune to fall, or rather Forrest fell and McDonald tripped and went over him. As it was, the winner, Lawrence Spencer, with a handicap of two laps, beat McDonald by less than a half a lap. The latter came in second with Myer Packer, 50 yards, third. In the excitement of the race and the haste in turning the corners nearly all the contestants fell once or more times, but no damage was done beyond the loss of a little very valuable time. The time for the mile was three minutes and seven seconds.

To Build New Road San Francisco, March 3.—The Western Pacific Railway Company was incorporated in this city today for the purpose of building a transcontinental railway from San Francisco via Oakland, Stockton, Marysville, Oroville, along the north fork of the Feather river, through Sierra valley in Plumas county, through the Beckwith pass in the Sierra Nevada mountains, and across Nevada to Salt Lake City, also to build a number of branch lines in California. The capitalization is fixed at $50,000,000. The articles set forth that there has been actually subscribed $1,500,000. The incorporators are local capitalists, who are understood to represent eastern interests.

Police Court. Ferdinand Drier this morning secured judgment for $87.50 against Marcus Keene in the police court for wages. The amount of the suit was admitted but there was a dispute as to when the payment was to be made.

Drier claimed that the agreement was that Keene was to pay him on demand, while Keene said that Drier had agreed to wait until the wash-up.

As there was no witnesses to either side and no written document stating the agreement, his lordship decided in favor of the plaintiff, giving judgment in his favor of $87.50 with costs.

Michael Byrne was fined $1 and costs for driving a two horse team on First avenue this morning at a greater speed than 6 miles per hour as prescribed by law.

Under Suspicion Buffalo, N. Y., March 3.—The finger of suspicion in the Burdick murder case is pointing toward a woman whose home is in the Elmwood district. Her career is known to the police. By far the most important statement made since the tragedy was given out today by Superintendent Bull, who heretofore has had but little to say. He announced the suspect, and that the motive had been established, and that in due time there will be an arrest.

ATLIN IS A GOOD CAMP

Mr. Geo. W. Adams of Hudson Bay Co.

Arrived in Dawson Yesterday After Making a Visit to That Place.

Mr. Geo. W. Adams, the northern representative of the Hudson's Bay Co., arrived in Dawson last evening. Mr. Adams has made several trips to Dawson in the interests of the firm he is representing and is always given the glad hand by the merchants with whom he does business.

Before coming to Dawson Mr. Adams made a trip to Atlin and says that camp is in a more prosperous condition than it has ever been, and lots of mining operations will be carried on this year.

Heretofore development work has been largely hindered by litigation, but this condition was relieved to some extent by Judge Henderson, who was sent into the country last year and who cleared up a large part of the difficulties. A petition is now being prepared asking for his services for this year, when it is hoped that the balance of the litigation will be settled and then the people can go ahead with their work without hindrance.

There are about 1000 people in the district, Mr. Adams said, and the camp seems to be in a very healthy condition. There are two towns located there now—Atlin and Dismal— the latter being about six miles from Atlin. If it were not for the banks and recording offices which have been kept at Atlin there would be no city there at all, as most of the business houses have moved to the new townsite, which is nearer the mining center.

Mr. Adams says that Atlin will ship in more goods over the ice than Dawson. He accounts for this from the fact that there are no concerns large enough to put in a winter's supply for the district in the summer as is done at Dawson. Mr. Adams will remain in Dawson until the opening of navigation.
