"CURED TO STAY"

is the universal testimony for South American Nerve, and what it did for Mrs. Armstrong it will do for any woman living.

"For one who has suffered as I have for over six years from nervous prostration, and having spent nearly all I possessed in doctor bills without any permanent relief, you can imagine what a God-sent blessing I feel South American Nerve has been to me. The first few doses gave me great relief. It took six bottles in all to cure me, but I feel I am cured to stay cured."

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

Rear Yonge & Escott.
The elections for the township passed off very quietly, the result being foreshadowed by the canvases of the two political parties on the Saturday evening previous. There was a very small turn out of the electors. They being apparently satisfied with the way in which the business of the township had been conducted. The following were the only persons elected and clerk Cornell had the pleasing duty of declaring them all elected by acclamation:

REVEE—E. J. Rowsom.
COUNCILLORS—M. E. Breson; John Cowan; Henry L. Joynt and Fred Hayes.

The usual meeting which followed was taken up almost entirely with the good roads question and the purchase of the toll roads. As the question was a new one, and somewhat complicated, there was a diversity of opinions expressed. The majority of those taking part in the discussion advising great care in, arriving at conclusions.

When Clerk Loverin announced his readiness to receive nominations for Reeve, Councillors and School Trustees 7.30 in the evening there was only five persons in the hall, which was a striking contrast to the nomination meeting of a year ago, when standing room was at a premium. The Reformers and Conservatives both had their canvases meetings and each adjourned without being able to find enough zealous, patriotic citizens who were willing to sacrifice their time and talents for their town's sake. More than half the hour allotted had expired before there were any nominations, and the last two were EVER FELT THAT DEATH WOULD BE WELCOME?

Mrs. Margaret Smith often did hear of Agnew's Cure for the Heart, gave her a new hope and cured her heart.
"I was for two years a great sufferer from heart trouble. At times I was confined to bed, at times my pain was so intense that I would have welcomed death with joy. I was attracted to Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart by reading of some wonderful cures wrought by it. One dose gave me relief in 30 minutes. After using four bottles I can truly say I never felt better in my life."—Margaret Smith, Brussels, Ont. 59 made within a couple of minutes of the hour. The following were nominated: REVEE—Herman R. Knowlton, accl.

COUNCILLORS—Geo. E. Judson; C.
L. Lamb; C. H. Smith; Wm. H.
Jacob; Alex Taylor; Delorma Witte and Alden J. Slack.

SCHOOL TRUSTEES—Geo. W. Beach;

F. Jordan. Nelson Earl resigned and the other three were elected.

Messrs. G. E. Judson, D. Witte and A. J. Slack sent in their resignation and the others named were declared elected by acclamation.

At the close of the nomination meeting there was a fair sized crowd present and B. Loverin was requested to act as chairman of the public meeting. The members of the old council gave an account of their stewardship and the new aspirants defined their position. The good roads movement came in for a good deal of discussion also the question of the abolition of tollgates and the lighting of the village streets drew forth a good many suggestions as to the best means to be adopted. But the all absorbing question seemed to be the need of a suitable hall for village purposes. To bring the matter before the meeting properly, Mr. W. A. Lewis moved, seconded by Mr. W. G. Parish, the following resolution:—That the electors of the village of Athens here assembled express their approval of the council for 1902 submitting to the electors for their approval a money by-law sufficient to build a town hall, the amount required to be raised to be extended over a period of 20 years and the amount not to exceed $6,000.

Messrs. S. A. Taplin, Jos. Thompson, W. G. Parish, W. A. Lewis, D.
Witte and others spoke strongly in favor of the resolution and on the motion being put to the meeting there was not a dissenting voice.

GREENBUSH.
(Held over from Last Week.)

Munroe & Taplin shipped a carload of hogs yesterday from Bellamy's for which they paid good prices.

W. G. Olds is making arrangements for a trip west on a visit to his relatives and many friends in the town of Newburgh.

Dr. Lightall, of North Augusta, can be consulted in his office in Greenbush on Tuesday afternoon in each week.
His skill and ability as a medical adviser is becoming very highly thought of by the people of this section.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Olds made a business and visiting trip to North Augusta last week.

Master Roy Kerr, of Athens H. S., has arrived home to spend the Christmas holidays with his parents and former school-mates.

Our school trustees have secured the services of Miss Stevens, of Athens, to succeed Miss Eyre in teaching our school for the year 1902. Miss Stevens comes among us very highly recommended and we hope she will be successful as a teacher.

Miss Justus has been engaged to teach the school in New Dublin. She has conducted the school at Rockspring for seven years which speaks volumes in her favor.

Miss Jennie Eyre, our popular school teacher, closed her school Friday.
She came to Greenbush two years ago a perfect stranger to the people, but by her Christian deportment has endeared herself to all the people of this section, been blessed by superior talents and willing to assist in every good cause. Her services have been very valuable in the Sabbath school, League and Prayer meeting.
Her removal from here will leave a vacancy which will be very hard to fill. Her ability as a teacher is far above the average and accounts for the esteem in which she is held by both parents and scholars. Her departure is very much regretted by the whole community. A very interesting entertainment by the pupils superintended by Miss Eyre, was held on Friday afternoon when the schoolhouse was filled to the doors, at which Miss Ethel Kerr presented her with a beautiful Bible and hymn book, also a nice tea set accompanied by a nicely worded address which lack of space prevents us from inserting.

No long tedious treatment, with possible disappointment in the end, but improvement from the first dose—and many a stomach sufferer has proved them so. One who has tested them says:
"They're a delightful and positive cure and are filling a long-felt want." They're handy to carry.

were entertained by the Rev Mr and Mrs Stillwell, and arrived home next morning at an early hour. Try and get around early next Friday, Billy.

The entertainment held in the town success in every way, the hall being packed to its fullest capacity. A good program was rendered. The Rev. Mr.

Austin Smith presided.

HOLLAND SCHOOL CLOSING.

A pleasant yet sad gathering took place at our Holland Public School here on Friday, Dec. 20th, when about forty persons assembled to listen to a concert which had been prepared by our teacher, Miss Emma Kincaid, and her pupils.

The school was tastefully decorated with green and the Xmas tree looked tempting. Mr. Francis Lynch acted as chairman and the concert was in every way a success, and reflected much credit both on the teacher and her pupils.

At the close of the programme Miss Annie Lynch read the following address while Miss Florence Powell and Master Eugene Lynch presented the gifts to their teacher:—

Escott Centre, Dec. 20th, 1901.

Miss Emma Kincaid.

Escott Centre, Ont.

Dear friend and teacher:—It has given us much pleasure to be present to day, at the closing of our school for the year 1901. It is with pleasure we the progress the pupils have made during the past year, and words cannot express to you how grateful we are for the pains you have taken in preparing them for their concert, which has been a grand success. While it gives us pleasure to see them here, it also grieves us to know you are so soon to take your departure from among us. Be assured you take our best wishes with you and as a token of regard I ask you to accept this photograph-case
