Brockville's Greatest Store

New Scotch Linoleums

Real Scotch Linoleum direct from the mills. Scores of hand-made new patterns at prices made possible by importing direct from the makers.

Scotch Linoleum is the greatest weaver there is. Nothing to equal it for durability and service. It's so clean and sanitary—dust or dirt cannot penetrate its surface; an occasional washing is all that is necessary.

It costs more than oil cloth, but it wears for years longer; in fact it is the most economical and satisfactory floor covering made. We have it in all widths

INLAID LINOLEUMS—The pattern goes right through to the back and never wears off in tile and floral patterns, per square yard $1.50 and	$1.10
CORK CARPETS—Springy to the step and immensely durable, in handsome Brown, Terra Cotta, Brown or Green shades, per square yard, $1.50, $1.00 and90
PRINTED LINOLEUMS—About forty different designs; all choice new patterns, in the various widths, per square yard, 75c, 62½c, 50c and45
WIDE LINOLEUMS—4 yards wide, very fine to cover a room without matching a seam; per square yard, 90c, 75c, 60c and50
OIL CLOTHS—We have a real good line of oil cloths in the new patterns, per square yard22½

Loyal to Leeds County

Mr. James A. Case, School Commissioner of Alpena County, Mich., in renewing his subscription to the Reporter, says:
"You might well think that the Reporter's pages would contain but little of interest to me after 50 years separation from the scenes of my boyhood. I can assure you, however, that I find many items that forcibly remind me of days and scenes of long ago. It is wonderful how strong the ties are that bind us to the early home. It strikes me that if the spirit ever leaves its home beyond to visit earthly scenes, it must first seek out its childhood home. It seems that a boy or girl, raised in old Leeds, might be excused for doing this, at any rate. I often find a single item in the Reporter that pays the price of five years subscription."

Birthday Preparations

A very enthusiastic meeting of the several committees appointed to develop and carry out the plans in connection with Mr. Thos. Pounder's birthday party was held at the home of R. Harvey, Lyndhurst, on Thursday evening.

Reports were presented of the choirs of the village churches preparing vocal and instrumental music for the occasion.

Subjects were chosen for the speakers, and the chairman was authorized to notify them of same.

The decorating committee will assemble at the Agricultural Hall on Saturday afternoon, Aug. 27th, to commence the work of decorating the hall, as arrangements have been made to have necessary material on hand to carry this into effect.

As an aid to the musical part of the programme, Mr. C. M. Quinn of Lansdowne, the popular agent for pianos, organs, sewing machines, etc., has contributed the use of a handsome gold-medal Newcombe piano.

A strong committee of prominent ladies were appointed to act as managers at the tables, and their names were coupled together in the following manner:—
Mrs. F. B. Sheffield and Mrs. J. Kirkland.
Mrs. Robt. Wood and Miss E. Roddick.
Mr. R. Harvey and Mrs. Geo. Rooney.
Mrs. Jno. Singleton and Mrs. F. W. Breeser.
Mrs. E. Kenny and Mrs. Alex. Sheldon.
Mrs. Joshua Wiltsie and Mrs. Hill Earl.

There are still some minor details to be attended to, and the committees of ladies have arranged for a final meeting at the home of Mrs. Geo. Rooney this week.

If we may judge from the harmony that prevails amongst those who have this matter in hand, it should be a complete success, and be a marked day for the village of Lyndhurst. All that could possibly mar the occasion would be a lack of good sunshine.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

Mrs. Russell of Delta visited friends in Athens on Tuesday.

Miss Bertha Pierce visited friends in Seely's Bay last week.

Mrs. C. C. Nash of Lyn is visiting friends in Athens this week.

Next Sunday the third anniversary of Old People's Day is to be celebrated at Glen Buell. See programme in this issue.

Mrs. Johnston, an aged and esteemed lady, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Johnston Green, on Sunday evening after a few days illness.

Mrs. R. Edwards of Welome is visiting old friends in Athens this week, and on Sunday morning he conducted very acceptably the service in the Methodist church.

Mrs. Shaw, mother of Richard and John Shaw, died at the home of the former, Five Mills, on Tuesday night, aged 90 years. Funeral service at the house at 10 a.m. to-morrow (Thursday).

It is reported that on Saturday night or Sunday night the store of Mr. William Stratton, Frankville, was burglarized and three watches stolen. The till was ransacked, but no money had been left in it.

Mr. E. S. Clow has been appointed leader of the choir in the Methodist church, a position rendered vacant by the resignation of Mr. D. Fisher, who so long and ably discharged the duties of that office.

It will be remembered that when cheese advanced a cent on Brockville board two weeks ago Prof. Pablow was present. It would pay the farmers of this district to "sign" a mascot of that kind.

Mr. C. J. Gilroy of Glen Buell attended the Barbara Heck memorial service and brought with him on his return several floral mementoes which he distributed among Methodist friends at the Glen.

Mr. N. D. Massey, B.A., spent part of last week with friends in Morrisburg and was accompanied home by his brother, A. Yale Massey, B.A., M.D., who is home on furlough after five years service as missionary, under the Congregational church, at Bangalla, West Africa.

Miss Edith Wiltsie, A. D. C. M., leaves Athens this week for Brandon, Man., where she will practice her profession as an instructor in music. Her departure will be regretted by the social circle in which she moved and by the Presbyterian church choir, of which she was organist. Athenians generally will regret the loss of her musical talents to the village.

Having a Hot Time

Last week, from St. Louis, Mo., Mr. W. G. Parish sent the Reporter a wood-on post card on which the following was printed: "All a-board for the World's Fair. Arrived safe. Exposition is more than o.k., it is ash-ton-ishing, you cedar sights of your life. The Pike is fir-straight, more than a pear of peaches and the spieiders don't bark like a tree. Board and (s) lumber at poplar prices, no need to pine for what you plank down. Birch once the last great show for many years. More fun than the beech. I wood spruce up and come. You walnut regret it. Butternut delay."

To this decidedly ligneous, if not lucid, announcement, Mr. Parish adds: "Fair great and wonderful—beyond description. Canadian exhibits and building are among the finest—Canucks proud of them. Heat intense—I guess 150 or more in the shade."
