FINE PRESENTATION

Lewis R. Keys, who for the past 12 years has been in the employ of the Canada Flour Mills Co., left with his family to-day for Warrington. Mr. Keys has had the position of assistant to the master miller at the Canada Flour Mills Co.'s mill. He has now come to Warrington to accept the position of master miller in a new mill just erected in that place. Last evening, prior to his departure, his fellow employees assembled in the handsome offices of the Canada Flour Mills Co. and presented him with a handsome gold watch, chain and fob. About 30 of the men from the mill were present. Speeches were made by N. H. Stevens, John Ross Walker, W. H. Bensen and others. Mr. Stevens said that Mr. Keys was an expert machinist and had always proved an excellent workman. He knew his business well and would make a success of his work in Warrington. An effort had been made to keep Mr. Keys here, but the inducements offered in Warrington were too attractive. The Canada Flour Mills Co. regretted the loss of Mr. Keys' services. Chief of Police John Holmes is a warm admirer of Mr. Keys, and he sent his regrets that duty prevented him from attending the presentation. Harry J. Stevens read the following address: Lewis R. Key, Esq., Chatham, Ont.

Dear Sir.—We, the officers and employees of the Canada Flour Mills Co., Limited, are gathered here to-night to bid you good-bye on the eve of your departure for your new home in Warrington. We trust the change you are making will be for your benefit, and we hope for the better health of your family. We assure you we all regret very much our parting with you.

During the twelve years you have filled your position here with the Canada Flour Mills Company and its predecessors you have been kind and considerate with your fellow employees, and nothing but the most friendly feelings exist between us. Not only for your kind disposition, but for your knowledge in milling, which has assisted in keeping up the high reputation of the Kent Mills has so prominently held for its flour, both at home and abroad, thereby enabling the company to run its mills steadily nearly the year round, and of course, giving all of us steady employment.

Owing to being so long associated with you we feel we could not say good-bye without showing our regard for you in some tangible way and the Canada Flour Mills Company, Limited, and employees now beg you to accept this gold watch and chain, with horse-shoe charm and conceal seal attached to the chain, with our earnest wish that the horse-shoe may bring you and your family good luck throughout life.

Signed on behalf of the Canada Flour Mills Co. and Employees, H. J. STEVENS, Secretary-Treas.

August 29th, 1902.

In his reply Mr. Keys said: Officers and Fellow Employees of the Canada Flour Mills Co., Limited: Gentlemen—I thank you from the bottom of my heart for the costly gift of this very pretty gold watch, chain and fob. Outside of its commercial value I shall treasure it with great pride inasmuch as it has come from my fellow employees and my employers, who certainly could not do anything more than their duty to me.

I have been with you for the last twelve years and have always tried to do what appeared to me to be the best for the company and man, and I must say I have been very pleased with the results of my life. Mr. Walker, who has charge of the mill, has been of very great value to me, in fact, he has been my school teacher in milling since I came here, and I can say for Mr. Stevens that no man has ever been so kind and so helpful to me as he has been.

When I come to realize my leaving Chatham and the many ties of friendship here it makes me regret all the more that I had decided to move. I thank you for the good wishes expressed in your address to Mrs. Keys and my family. Again I thank you most warmly for the beautiful present, and trust that should any of your other employees have given as long service as I have, should decide to leave this firm that you will also watch them. I must now say good-bye to you, but this night will be most pleasant, remembered by me the balance of my life.

LEWIS R. KEYS, Chatham, Ont., Aug. 29, 1902.

HOW IT HAPPENED.

Clerk Merritt secured a base on balls and scored on McColg's two bagger.

Ald. Waddell, after striking out, came to the conclusion that it needed practice.

"As soon as we get ahead go and ring that fire-bell," O. Lewis was heard to say.

"You're out—or I mean take your base"—was one of Sully's decisions about a batter.

Ex-Ald. Bill Harper placed an accidental policy on each of the aldermen before the game.

Doc Arnold—the first of the massive form—was the first to face the pitcher and it was three of a kind.

Ald. McColg is generally considered an expert at knocking things down but he couldn't knock down the ball.

Ed. Mounter made a hard drive but only succeeded in beating the ball to first by a most progressive slide.

The firemen say on the "Side" that the umpire wasn't square, but Sully's insulted if you called him a block-head.

A fireman supporter said Sully's $20 Panama was lying heavily on his head to distinguish a ball from a strike.

When City Clerk Merritt made that low throw to T. A. Smith it wasn't exactly "Garnation" that the ex-mayor and florist muttered.

Will Merritt followed and then came Archie McColg, and you could feel the jars of the atmosphere as he pounded it three times in six.

Ald. Cowan played shortstop between second and third and first and second. For a right hand man the first way and a left hand the second.

Ex-Mayor Smith must have batted better than a thousand. It may safely be said that he made, not the hit of the game, but the hit of the game.

"Holler it out!" "What are you givin' us?"

"That was no strike!"

"Why he was out a mile!"

Then Sully's laugh and "batter's out."

We don't see what the aldermen wanted with Mounter and Waddell out in the field when they had O. L. Lewis out there. His runs were almost as good as the ones he made in seeking municipal honors.

Mayor Sulman says that he knows that the aldermen could have won that game of ball, and they would have won, only the Mayor had to give the firemen a little the best of it. It was the Mayor's adroitness that saved the firemen from defeat.

"Rube" Waddell the first time to bat hit the ball a hard one but he was so astonished at himself he couldn't run for a few seconds and in the meantime Bob Coyle had brought the ball in from centre field and handed it to Joe Sides as first base.

In the seventh innings O. Lewis stole third while the ball was being returned to the pitcher. He made such a success of that he had several yards past the base. T. A. Smith was coaching at that point and gallantly stepped on the base, thus holding it until the return of the acrobatic barrier.

City Clerk Merritt was playing at shortstop at the beginning of the game. Joe Sides was the first one to bat a ball down to him. Mr. Merritt tried first to stop the ball with the ends of his fingers; failing in this he slipped and escaped. Just as Mr. Merritt sat down. By the time the city clerk had got through kicking the ball for its action Joe Sides was on third base.

The city clerk says those way-back firemen came over to Tecumseh Park with a lot of old rules of the game to foist on the umpire. The mayor, however, went over with the latest amended rules. The decisions of the mayor were fairly good generally but biased a little in favor of the firemen. In consequence the mayor's colleagues are very sore. Ald. Taylor in particular was very sore this morning, especially in the arm.

Ex-Ald. W. H. Harper tried to work the Mayor for a pass to first. The Mayor refused to be touched for free transportation. He said that he left the hands of the ladies of the Home for the Friendless and Mr. Harper would have to go and interview them. The city ticket agent then got cross. After warning Ald. Mounter, chairman of the Parks committee, to move back to the hand stand, he went up and drove so hard at the ball that he struck out.

Ald. Mounter lost a good catch and let in two runs while he was drinking at the fountain and chatting with the ladies.

The firemen made a good beginning but they couldn't hold up against the steady heads on the council.

The aldermen claim that they were too much for the firemen. They laid out one fire laddie and rendered two unfit to run bases.

The firemen say that one of the aldermen pulled that false alarm last night on purpose, because one of the firemen bragged that he wasn't tired after the game.
