THE ACADIAN.

WOLFVILLE, N. S., JULY 26, 1895.

Local and Provincial.

Camp-meeting begins at Berwick on Thursday of next week.

An excursion party of 50, in charge of Dr Campbell, of "Yemenit," is expected to visit the "Land of Evangeline" in a few days.

The gasoline launch made her first trip to Evangeline Beach on Wednesday afternoon, but was unable to land her passengers owing to the high wind.

Mr O. D. Harris has begun the erection of a fine residence on College Avenue on the lot between the residences of Dr. Kestead and J. W. Caldwell, Esq.

Messrs Rockwell & Co., have had a neatly constructed sign bearing the legend "Evangeline Souvenir" suspended over the sidewalk in front of their place of business.

All consumers of water are earnestly requested not to allow waste, and those who have hoses must curtail flow from them. The height of water in the reservoir is falling.

On Wednesday evening last, the band discoursed a number of sweet selections on the stand, which, since it was used a fortnight ago, has been somewhat improved in appearance.

Mrs A. S. Murray's new house on Rand Avenue which has been in course of construction for some time, is now about completed, and Mrs Murray will probably get moved in shortly.

In the new Agricultural and Dairy building at St. John, N. B., exhibitors will find a room specially prepared for maintaining an even temperature, and thus preserve the exhibits from injury.

BANANAS 20c, a Doz. at F. J. Porter's

J. H. Cox, of Cambridge, wins the badge for highest aggregate score in the League Competition. His score is 354 and is ahead of any made by the Halifax Garrison Artillery. Grant Bowie gets the second team badge with a score of 329.

C. F. and T. R. Eaton of Eatonville, who have a contract to build a bark for New York parties, intend to build her at Parrsboro. She will be built at the O'Mullin shipyard, and Thomas Trahey has the contract of doing the work. She is intended for the Greenland business, and will be sheathed with iron plates and will be as strong as wood and iron oak make her.

For SALE—cheap: Two second hand Harnesses. One "Boylan" Bike, only used a few times. F. J. PORTER.

Our enterprising liveryman, Mr Edward Chase, has this week made a valuable addition to his plant, in the form of an elegant new turn-out. The carriage is an extension top and is the finest carriage ever built in this town. The builder, Mr C. H. Borden, has fully sustained his reputation as a builder of first class carriages. The best of stock has been used, and the carriage is a credit to the builder and to the enterprise of the owner. The harnesses, which were made especially for this turn-out were manufactured by our skillful harness maker, Mr William Regan, whose reputation for turning out first-class work is well known throughout the county. They are made from best oak-tanned leather, and are constructed in a thoroughly workmanlike manner. Taken altogether the turn-out is one of the finest if not the finest in the county.

Just as the ACADIAN was going to press last week Mr F. J. Porter made his appearance upon the scene bearing a liberal quantity of tropical fruits and temperance drinks with which he proceeded to tempt the staff. The staff takes this opportunity of showing their appreciation for the kindness of Mr Porter

Local and Provincial.

The happy youth and the maiden fair rode out the summer through, For charming runs the country o'er On a cycle built for two.

They married when the autumn came, And now they try to run A little house in Lunenburg On an income built for one.

The provincial rifle association matches are to begin at Bedford on August 13th.

The showers of yesterday were much needed and did an immense amount of good.

The Dog Tax is now due and owners are notified to take out their licenses without delay.

Mr Ernest Caldwell, of Union Street, had a fine looking 5-year-old mare in town on Wednesday, which tipped the scales at 1200 pounds.

Capt Taylor's residence, which has been remodelling, is rapidly assuming an attractive appearance, and when completed will be a handsome dwelling.

It is expected that the finest collection of Horses and Cattle ever seen in the Maritime Provinces will be at the coming Exhibition in St. John in September next.

If you do not care for "Soda" try a "shake."

New white and colored Duck Suits at $2.95, and the latest in Cloaks suitable for parties and excursions, the very latest in style and material at $2.75 and $5.00. See A. O'Conner's adv.

Mr George Franklin, Jr., met with quite a painful accident on Saturday evening last. He fell from a wagon to which one of the horse reels was attached, and a wheel of the wagon and also of the reel passed over his ankle. Fortunately no bones were broken and he is now around again.

How is your subscription? Will you kindly revolve this question over in your mind and ascertain if you don't owe the ACADIAN for a year or more. We would be pleased to give an autograph to about one thousand people during the next few weeks and would be truly thankful for the privilege of doing so.

Making Nova Scotia Known.

The Commerce an illustrated weekly journal of London, G. B., in its issue of July 10, contains an excellent photograph of Attorney-General, and a lengthy interview on Canadian matters in particular. In the interview Mr Longley takes special pains to impress the Commerce with the value and importance of Nova Scotia's varied resources, and the provincial legislation which provides scope and opportunity for their development. The article is illustrated with pictures of Halifax, Wolfville and Grand Pre dyke, Bridgewater, head of Mahone Bay and "an orchard in Nova Scotia." Halifax Chronicle.

—Big crowds at Evangeline Beach this week.

—Furries from Windsor, Hantsport and Wolfville.

—Wednesday there were some 75 bathing, two thirds of whom were ladies.

—It is expected that on Friday and Saturday the beach will be thronged.

A party of twelve tourists from Boston and vicinity, are expected to arrive in Wolfville this evening. They will be in charge of Rev. E. H. Palmer, editor of Education, Boston, who it will be remembered, was here last summer, and delivered a lecture in College Hall. The party will be entertained at the American House.

The building at Acadia Villa, Horton Landing, known as The Cottage, is being thoroughly renovated. The structure has been raised and a brick foundation laid, two how windows have been added, and the whole has received quite an embellishing at the hands of the painters.
