We understand that there is a possibility of arrangements being made by which Mr. Avon Saxon will give a concert in Wolfville at an early date. Mr. Saxon, who was formerly for a time a resident of Wolfville, has won fame as a vocalist in all parts of the world, and we are sure our people would gladly avail themselves of the opportunity of giving him a bumper house here. [Since writing the foregoing arrangements have been completed. See adv. in another column.]

Three men and a team from out of town got into difficulty on Tuesday night. They had been in the direction of Kentville and were returning to their homes at Grand Pre, and when driving through the town about 11 o'clock succeeded in getting their horse into an excavation on Main street, which had been made for the purpose of laying a water pipe. The piece had a lantern hung over it, which should have prevented any such mishap, had the driver of the team been at all on the alert. After considerable trouble the horse was got out of the hole and the party proceeded on their way.
