Boarders or roomers can be accommodated at Mrs. Weaver's, Acadia street, west. Those indebted to this office will help us greatly by making prompt payment.

The dry weather is bringing along the haying season rapidly. It is said that the crop will not be more than a good average one.

Miss Burmeister now has charge of the organ of the Baptist church, in the absence of Mrs. Ringwald, who was called home last week.

The strawberry crop, which promised early in the season to be a big one, is suffering in consequence of the continued dry weather.

Mr. John Dykens, of Lower Wolfville, was unfortunately killed on Monday night, it having been killed by falling into an open well in the pasture.

Bargains in suits at Crozier's. He has been known to receive 1/2 dozen fresh gaspareux in full payment for a nice blue suit.

Dr. Samuel Primrose, of Lawrence town, one of the best known practitioners in the province, died on July 1st, at the Victoria General Hospital.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Wolfville Board of Trade will be held on Wednesday evening of next week. It is understood that a number of interesting matters will be up for discussion.

A very interesting address was given in the Baptist church on Monday evening by Rev. W. G. Hanna, of the Lord's Day Alliance. The speaker discussed the subject in a broad and most instructive manner.

Mr. Ernest Robinson, the new principal of Horton Collegiate Academy, with Mrs. Robinson arrived in town this week. They will reside in the Leslie house. Their many Wolfville friends are glad to welcome them back to our town.

All are cordially invited to a strawberry tea, held under the auspices of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, on the lawn of Mr. J. D. Chambers, on Monday evening, July 13th, from 6 to 9 o'clock.

The oldest house in New Minas, being built nearly 140 years ago, was burned down on Monday. The house was owned by Henry Turner, who resides in Wolfville, but with Mrs. Turner, was occupying it temporarily. Rising early he left a fire in the kitchen stove and before assistance came the fire had gained headway, and the old landmark could not be saved.

The death occurred at Grand Pre on Wednesday of Capt. Wallace Buchanan, for many years commander of one of the Pickford & Black steamers. He was 57 years of age, and had been in failing health for some time. Only a week before his death he arrived at the old house after many years' absence. A widow survives him. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon. Rev. David Wright conducting the services.

Mayor Black has purchased a new automobile which made its first appearance on our streets on Tuesday. It is very different in appearance from other vehicles of this kind found in this vicinity, very much resembling an ordinary motor car. It appears to be substantially built and will no doubt prove a useful carriage. In one particular it is not unlike other automobiles—it will not go on Thursdays, Saturdays and Sundays.

C. D. Taylor, the well known multi-millionaire, with his wife, has just returned from an extensive European trip and is visiting his mother, Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Main street. Mr. Taylor, who is a native of Annapolis, made his first rich strike in Nevada, after having lost five great mines, which he sold two years ago for nearly two millions. During his recent trip to England, he has invested largely in China clay property in Devon and Cornwall counties, from which he expects large returns.
