One item of last week's issue should have read: Messrs. D'Almeida and Johnson have kindly donated fifteen dollars to the Red Cross Society, the gross receipts of entrance fees to the rink on Thursday evening, February 1st.

The Valentine Bazaar, fancy work and pantry sale, held at the Tea Room last Saturday, was a great success. A pleasing feature was the display of fancy baskets, which evidently met with the approval of patrons. About $100.00 was taken, and this amount will be considerably increased when orders on hand for more baskets are filled.

Just received, a shipment of the famous Harmony Violet Soap—the most popular soap made. At A. V. RAND'S.

At the Methodist church on Sunday next the pastor will preach morning and evening. The subject of the evening sermon will be "The Foundations of a Man's Life." Mrs. Owen spends some time and thought on the superstructure of their lives, polishing it up, making it comfortable, but what about the foundation? Is your life being built on a right foundation? Think it over.

Money to loan on mortgage security. Apply to E. S. Crawley, Wolfville.

In connection with the County Convention the Wolfville W. C. T. U. will celebrate the 25th anniversary of its organization. All the members are urged to be present at Temperance Hall on Tuesday. The convention will open at 4:30 o'clock. The anniversary will take the form of a banquet and will close in time for those who wish to do so to attend the "Birth of a Nation." The officers of Wolfville Division and members of the "Y's" are invited.

Sergt. Ernest Burs arrived home on Friday evening. He was expected on the morning train and arrangements were made for giving him a suitable reception. He missed connection at Truro and was driven from Windsor in the evening. Mr. Burs went over with the Universities Company and was a member of the Princess Pats. He was wounded last summer and has since been in a hospital in England. He has done "his bit" with honor and many friends are glad to welcome him home again.

Kodakers, look your films over; this is the season when Graham gives special attention to enlarging.

The Valentine Bazaar and sale given by the ladies of St. Andrew's church at the Red Cross Tea Rooms last Saturday afternoon was a most successful affair. There was a beautiful display of valentines and fancy articles appropriate to the occasion and the whole arrangement was most artistic and attractive. Notwithstanding the disagreeable state of the weather and roads the sale was well patronized and over a hundred dollars was realized. The ladies having the affair in charge deserve great credit.

FOR SALE.—At Hilix Bros' Furniture Store, Kentville, Superb Player Piano, costing $750.00—only in use a few months—and splendid collection of records. Will be sold at great sacrifice of $550.00. Owner having left Canada is reason for selling at such a low figure.

Mrs. R. DeWolf Archibald wishes to acknowledge a gift from Mr. Bedford Chase, Port Williams, of some very fine Talmon Sweet apples, which she used to good effect in her work for the wounded boys in Hospital in France. Four barrels of very fine Red apples for jelly have been received from her brother, George W. DeWolf, of Maplebank Farm, Hants Co., as well as two barrels of culls from the packing house of Mr. Dwight Sillarwood, Wolfville, Mr. Thom. J. Borden, of Port Williams, has donated some fine Talmon Sweet and Bishop Pippins for canning. These make a refreshing change for those who cannot take a rich preserve. It is comforting to receive choice fruit to work with. The best is none too good for our boys of Canada, who have done their bit, and are now serving a tedious time in Hospital.

Personal Mention.

(Contributions in this department will be gladly received.)

Mrs. Wilham McKittrick, of Kentville, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Ruffe.

Our young townsmen, Mr. Fred Rand, left on Monday for Toronto having been offered a position with the London Motor Cycle Co. Fred is an able, hard working, and efficient mechanic, and has been in the employ of the London Motor Cycle Co. for several years.

The Egyptian Princess.

On Friday, March 2nd, 1917, there will be given in College Hall, the charming operetta, "The Egyptian Princess." The production will be under the direction of Miss Newey, assisted by Miss Gaines, Miss Borne and Miss Radie. The soloists and chorus are from Miss Newey's class in the Seminary. The costumes are richly decorated for the occasion with flags and hot-house flowers. The operetta consists of two acts. Besides the chorus parts there are thirteen solos in the first act and twelve in the second.

Watch the paper for further announcement next week and posters. Reserved seats will be on sale at Rand's at the popular price 50c and 25c. One-half the net proceeds go for patriotic purposes.

An Interesting Wedding.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Campbell, Port Williams, was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, Jan. 16th, when Mrs. Campbell's sister, Lavinia Weston, of Church Street, was united in marriage with Mr. Talford Babbington Messenger, of Warrimou, Saskatchewan. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with flags and hot-house flowers. Among the guests were the groom's sisters, Mrs. Churchill and Mrs. Fowler.

The bride, dressed in her travelling suit, entered the parlor on the arm of her brother, Mr. Henry Weston, while her daughter presided at the piano. The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Prosser, of Canada. After dainty refreshments had been partaken of the guests bade good-bye to the bride who left on the afternoon train for Halifax. The bride received quite a few nice gifts including a cheque from the groom.

Success of an Acadia Man.

The Montreal Transcript contains a lengthy "appreciation" of Leroy T. Bowne, a New Brunswick boy, well known here, who is making good. Mr. Bowne graduated from Acadia in 1912 at Bachelor of Arts and in 1913 from the same university as Bachelor of Science. Although still in the twenties he has become an engineer of the highest efficiency and ability, most of his work being in the great Northland of Canada. In his spare hours the young man devotes his talents to literary work for leading American magazines, and the New York's number of Field and Stream features an article from his pen on "The Dogs of the Northland."

Skinner—McMahon.

BERWICK, February 12.—A very quiet wedding took place on Saturday afternoon at the residence of Albert E. McMahon, Commercial street, when his eldest daughter, Ruth Louise, was united in marriage to Kenneth McCabe Skinner, of Digby. Rev. A. W. Robbins performed the ceremony. The bride was dressed in a travelling suit of blue serge, wore a black hat trimmed with gold lace, also a handsome red fox fur, which was the gift of her father, and carried a bouquet of violets. The groom's present was a wrist watch. After refreshments had been served Mr. and Mrs. Skinner boarded the express for a trip through the Province. On their return they will reside at Digby.

Cats.

A great deal has been said about a person's right to keep a cat. I with a great many others believe that any person has a right to keep a cat on their own property. I also hold that they have no right to keep one on my property, and experience has shown that it cannot be done very long. I believe in protecting our native song birds and will do everything in my power to defend them against wandering cats, and hope others will do the same until the stray cat has vanished and pet cats are kept at home. I have done some work this last year in eliminating stray cats from the neighborhood and have been rewarded by a fourfold increase in the song birds nesting around our home. In addition to the reward I mentioned last week I have been rewarded by some very divided opinions of people who think their pet cats sleep peacefully under my pear tree, but who have another thought coming to them, for there are other bird lovers in town as well as myself. We know of about twenty-five or eight cats that have ceased operations during the last open season. Several of the above mentioned bird lovers destroy cats on the quiet, knowing it will be blamed on me (and I don't mind) but I wish to say very emphatically that I am not in any way responsible for the death or injury of any dog that has lately been killed for I have no motive for such act.

Now let me say a word in regard to why cats should be destroyed, and if you think of it for a minute you will agree with me and give your assistance to the good work. They catch the parent birds while they gather food for their nestlings and thus leave the young to starve. They climb the trees in the night and catch both the mother bird and young on the nest. One gentleman in town had a robin nesting in his wood-pile and he used to feed the young robins. One morning he went to visit them and they were all killed. He kept a cat. They catch young feedings, that leave the nest too soon and hop about the ground powerless to escape. Cats are also known to carry diseases and for that reason alone should be eliminated. If any one wishes any information on the best means of exterminating stray cats I should be very pleased to give them any assistance I can in that regard. It is amazing to see that when a cat makes its appearance in any orchard the birds especially the robins will call for me to come and attend to him. Sometimes a lively old robin will point him out to me saying as clearly as he can "there he is, there he is," when crack and robin says thank you and goes back to business.

Death's Harvest.

RALPH IRVINE CURRY. The home of Mr. W. W. Curry, Hortonville, Kings county, was saddened on the evening of February 5th by the death of the youngest son, Ralph Irvine, aged 19 years. He had been an invalid from infancy, and had recently suffered much, so that for him the summons of the Death Angel was a happy release from pain.

To his mother and sisters who have so devotedly ministered to him all these years, his passing leaves a blank that time only can efface. It is but a few short months since the husband and father was called home after an illness extending over three years.

The many friends of Mrs. Curry and her daughters, and only remaining son in the far Canadian West, will be as one in their heartfelt sympathy with them in this latest sorrow. The funeral, conducted by the Rev. A. Hockin, took place on Wednesday afternoon, interment being at the Methodist Cemetery, Grand Pre.

MARGARET J. SALTER. On Feb. 7th, Margaret J. Salter, wife of R. J. N. Salter, passed away at the residence of her two daughters, Wolfville, where she had been visiting several months past.

The deceased, possessed of strong religious sentiment, was a consistent member of the Church of England, to which she devoted her best energies. She was ever ready in visiting the sick, comforting the sorrowing and giving a helping hand to those in need. Being of a bright and cheerful disposition the passing of Mrs. Salter will cause a sad blank in the home circle and among a large number of friends all of whom will deeply mourn their loss.

Besides her husband she is survived by four sons and three daughters. Senator William Salter, representing Lynn in Massachusetts Senate is a brother of deceased; and Mrs. Penelope, of Lynn, and Mrs. Capt. McCulloch, Hantsport, are sisters.

After a short service at the home in Wolfville conducted by the Rev. Mr. Dixon, the remains were conveyed to St. James church, Newport, Hants county, where the solemn burial rites of the Church of England were said by the Rev. Mr. Webster, who preached from John 19:25 "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Abide With Me" were sung, after which the remains were removed to their last resting place in St. James cemetery followed by a large concourse of relatives and friends.
