CHAUTAUQUA IS IN FULL SWING

Program on Opening Day was one of Finest Ever Presented—Rare
Treats are in Store

Hartland's fourth Swarthmore Chautauque began yesterday afternoon with the program by the Apollo Concert Company both afternoon and evening indicates that this year's program will be fully up to every expectation and surpass the best that has been given here. Most people who try to be funny fall miserably, but Ralph Bingham makes a business of it and gets away with it far better than most men who have tried. Such wholesome, fresh, clean, exuberant humor as this versatile genius poured forth last evening tickled the young people and rejuvenated those with graying hair. He is also a talented violinist and pianist. He is an artist. Chautauque parade on Monday evening created much enthusiasm and many outsiders came into town to see it. The advance agent, Mr. Cahill, and the junior leader, as well as Rev. W. P. Haight, gave stirring addresses from the balcony of the Keith & Plummer building.

The program for this afternoon and evening will be the Ernest Gamble Concert Company which will consist largely of classical music. There will be a lecture by Harry R. McKee on "Your Community in Revolution" at the afternoon session. The charming English lady, Miss Ada Ward, known as "the little English woman with the big message" will capture the audience tonight with her talk on "Your Folks Over Here".

The remainder of the seven days program will be found on the last page of this paper. On Sunday the sacred program will open at 2 p.m., in the big tent and there will be no admission charge, to which everybody is invited.

Chautauque week is a great thing for Hartland. It brings a lot of visitors to town. The community spirit is well established, and while the people are being treated to entertainment of the highest class, they are also being given mental food that cannot fail to lead their thoughts into the higher and better and more substantial things of life.

Those who failed to purchase season tickets before yesterday noon are regretting much their lost opportunity. Single admissions may be secured for 75 cents each except on play nights, when the price is $1.

Some have been heard to bemoan the fact that Chautauque will take a great deal of money away. This is a childish complaint because for other things a great deal more money is being sent away every week than Chautauque takes, and when a man buys a first class automobile, which most men hereabout have done, nobody is heard to bemoan the sending away of the money; and close to a quarter of a million has been sent from this immediate vicinity to pay for automobiles.

There may be no Chautauque in Hartland next year as arrangements have been made that if Florenceville will undertake the burden next year, Hartland enthusiasts will support them in their guaranty, and Hartland people will take as many season tickets as Florenceville has done this year.

MADE GOOD SHOWING

Miss L. Faye Coy, daughter of Geo. W. Coy, Saunders St., was the winner of a prize offered by Alex. Murray & Company, Dry Goods, to the Fredericton Business College student who would make the highest marks for the year in the Shorthand & Typewriting Department. Miss Coy made 689 out of a possible 700 on the examination set by the Business Education Association of Canada. Miss Doris Irvine, a daughter of Dr. W. H. Irvine, being a close second with 627. The prize is the privilege of selecting any garment from the firm's stock. Miss Coy was offered and accepted a very responsible position with a Presque Isle, Maine, concern—Fredericton Mail.

FLORENCEVILLE MAN KILLED IN KENTUCKY

Amy R. Merrill, 103 Mechanic street, has received word of the death of a brother, Fred Ross, a former resident of Florenceville, aged 30 years yesterday, in a mine cave-in in Harlan, Ky., where Mr. Ross was engaged as a civil engineer. A large piece of slate fell, crushing the cavelin, and he was buried under the debris.

Mr. Ross was a graduate of the University of New Brunswick at Fredericton, where he was born. The year after his graduation in 1915 he made his home with Dr. Merrill here. He removed to the South soon after and was married there about a year ago.

A few years ago a brother, Edward, met a violent death in a Michigan railroad accident. During the winter his father, Stephen D. Ross, died suddenly while sitting in a dentist's chair in the Warren block.

Besides his wife, Mr. Ross leaves his mother, Mrs. Drusilla Ross, a sister, Mrs. Merrill, a brother, George of Los Angeles, Cal. He was a member of the Masonic fraternity.

The body will be brought to the home of Dr. Merrill for burial in Marboro. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

(The foregoing is from the Worcester (Mass.) Gazette and the accident occurred on July 5.—Editor).

SLASH-BURNING TO BE STOPPED

A strong sentiment in favor of the elimination of spring and summer slash-burning has been created by the recent disastrous forest conflagrations in New Brunswick, many of which have been traced to slash-burning sources. Residents of many sections of the province, particularly those most seriously affected by forest fires, are demanding greater precautions in the control of slash-burning fires.

As an example of this public sentiment, which has been aroused, the Restigouche County Council in semi-annual session recently adopted a resolution in support of the elimination of spring and summer burning and asking the Department of Lands and Mines to take steps in this direction. These demands which are being received from various sources also advocate the supervision of slash-burning under qualified persons during periods when the fire hazard is at a minimum in the fall. Forestry officials have long ago advocated such steps stating that sooner or later the elimination of burning during the period mentioned, would become imperative.

FAMILY IS UNITED AFTER MANY YEARS

Unusual Services Held at Windsor on July 15

On Sunday morning, July 15, a most noteworthy service was held in the Union Church, Windsor, Rev. Willard S. Tedford, Palacoona, Ind., son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Tedford, some time deceased, preached a very impressive sermon to a large congregation, among them being eight of his own brothers and only sister. A quartette number by four brothers—Jesse, Victor, Read's, Willard and Allan followed the address. In the afternoon a somewhat similar service was conducted. Rev. A. Lawrence Tedford, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church, St. John, occupied the pulpit. After an eloquent address, a duet was given by two of the brothers.

On the following day a picnic was held in an orchard, near the site of the old home. There were gathered together at this reunion the children and grandchildren numbering about forty in all. Those present were: Ralph H. and wife, of Apascario, California, who came to Huntington, West Virginia by rail and from there motored in company with Addington C. M. D. and wife, Arthur W. and three children, of Bancroft, Me.; Harry A. and wife and four children, Westbrook, Me.; Joe E. and wife, Exeter, Maine; Willard C., returned missionary, India, wife and two sons; A. Lawrence, wife and three children, St. John; L. Victor, wife and two children, Sioux City, Iowa. There remain Jesse E., who is the only remaining brother at home, and the sister, Mrs. Percy E. Dickinson, also of Windsor. One brother, Fred C. and family, of Boston, were absent. A wire received late Saturday afternoon stated his inability to reach here for the happy festival.

This was an unusual reunion. Because of the fact that the large family still remains unbroken and were able to be together again after long years of separation, gladdened the hearts of all the participants and made it truly a happy event.

ILLEGAL HUNTING ENDS IN TRAGEDY

Nathan Orr, member of a party engaged in illegal hunting was accidentally shot and killed about 11 o'clock Saturday evening, on the dead water of the St. Croix, near Masardis. Orr was mistaken for a deer by Clarence Knapp, one of the party. Clarence Knapp, Arthur Gooding and Ray Grass, all of Masardis were on a hunting trip and according to their own confessions were engaged in jacking deer. Two of the party were in a boat, Orr having placed a light about his head to attract the deer. As they approached the land, Knapp, thinking that the small light which showed but indistinctly through the fog, was the eye of a deer, fired and instantly killed Orr.

The men were overcome by the accident and decided to state that Orr killed himself accidentally and, indeed told that story to Sheriff E. W. Grant when he arrived at the scene. The investigation, however, showed that Orr had been shot in the back and that the bullet had come out through the shoulderblade. Then the men made the statement that Orr had been accidentally killed by Knapp giving the details as above and explained the shooting in the back by the statement that the boat was well by the men on the land when Knapp fired.

The three survivors of the party were arraigned in the Highton Municipal court, Monday morning. Knapp on the charge of manslaughter and also of illegal hunting, the others on the latter charge. All pleaded guilty. Gooding and Grass were fined and paid, while Knapp on the manslaughter charge was bound over to the Supreme court term. Orr, who was a section man on the B. & A. at Masardis was married and had one child. He was about 32 years of age.—Houlton Times.

CAMP MEETINGS

The Annual Meeting at Riverside Camp Grounds near Robinson, Me., opens on Friday evening, Aug. 3, and continues until the evening of Aug. 12. The Evangelist, Rev. A. L. Whitcomb, of Iowa, will preach twice daily. Come and hear him!

Canard and White Steamers will return eastward tomorrow. There will be no pounding on the bar when they set forth to sea.

"I'm too late ahead of you now," said the first house-party girl to the second.
