

Paul Raymond Drost

At Wicklow, Nov. 3, Paul Raymond Drost, youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Solomon Drost, died of diphtheria, aged six years, two months. He leaves to mourn: father, mother, five sisters and three brothers. We stood beside our darling When bitter tear-drops fell, And, oh! how we had loved him No heart but ours could tell. He was like a little half-bloomed rose, So beautiful and rare, And on his Saviour's breast he rests And blooms forever there.

DIFFERENT KINDS OF SPEED

Aviator and Motorist Didn't Have the Same Kind of Comparison as They Traveled.

The motorist was taking an aviator friend, recently returned from the army air service, out for a spin. Thinking of the 125-mile-an-hour speed to which the aviator was accustomed, the motorist felt that it was incumbent upon him to "let 'er out." His friend, he felt, would feel badly smiling along at the land rate folk are used to traveling. So he cut loose and the car was slipping along at something like 50 miles an hour.

Then the motorist felt a hand laid upon his arm. "Going pretty fast, aren't you?" remarked the aviator, a trifle uneasily. After the motorist had slowed down he asked: "Why, I thought the best speed I could make would seem slow to you. How is it that it appeared so fast?"

"You see, in the air, even at our greatest speed, we seem more or less stationary unless we look below us and see objects flitting past," explained the aviator. "You know speed can only be reckoned relatively—by things one is leaving behind. Now, the gulf you were moving a few minutes ago looked mighty fast, uncomfortably fast I might say, to me. I kept noticing things we were leaving behind."

"Well, I'll be darned," said the motorist. "I never thought of it in that way before."

And the hand of the speed clock jiggled back to the 25-mile mark.—Kansas City Star.

If It Only Were!

The late Ella Wheeler Wilcox, though the most popular poet of modern times, steadfastly refused to enter New York society. The most exclusive Fifth avenue portals were open to her, but Mrs. Wilcox passed them indifferently by.

A New York magazine editor, once sought her out with an invitation to a Fifth avenue dinner party.

"I'm sorry," she said, "but I can't go."

"Oh," said the editor, "you must accept this invitation!"

"Why must I?" said the poet.

"Our host," the editor answered, "is rich—rich—a multimillionaire. You must accept."

"Well, I would," said Mrs. Wilcox, with a smile, "if it were catching!"

He Was No Mollusc.

A neighbor's son was entertaining about twenty of his little boy and girl friends at his birthday party. The children were supposed to return to their respective homes at eight o'clock in the evening; however, they were having such a good time when the going home hour arrived, its passing still found them hard at it. The mother of the little host suggested to him the advisability of intimating to his little friends the lateness of the hour. This is how he did it:

"Say, it's nine o'clock; I'm getting sleepy, and you kids have got to go home!"

"What's that? Go home this early?" said one of his indignant little guests. "I thought this was to be an all-night affair!"

Some Did.

"So you've been in the army, eh?" asked the old gentleman kindly. "And tell me, did you do much shooting while you were over there?"

"I won $30 the first day I landed in France," answered the gambler, proudly.—Home Sector.

"My, You Are Looking So Much Better!"

"YES, I am feeling fine, too."

"And how is baby?"

"He is just dandy and as good as can be."

"And what have you been doing to look so well?"

"Oh, I got run-down nursing baby and began to get discouraged. I was feeling so miserable. I suppose it was my nervous condition that got baby restless, and then, of course, it worried me trying to look after him."

"I thought you looked so worn-out when I was in last time."

"Well, I was feeling so discouraged that I sent for mother to come and she was not here a day before she had me using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food."

"I should have told you about it, for we always use Dr. Chase's Nerve Food when any of us get nervous or run-down."

"For the first few days I could not see that it was doing much good, but soon I found myself sleeping better and feeling less worried and irritable during the day."

My appetite improved and as I gained strength baby seemed to sleep better and be less trouble. He is just fine now and as good-natured as any baby ever was."

"How do you take the Nerve Food?"

"One pill after each meal and at bed time. I will soon be able to discontinue using it, but want to be sure that my system is thoroughly built up before quitting."

"That is great. It gives me more confidence than ever in Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and that is saying a good deal, for you know what it did for me when I had that nervous breakdown. Has your mother gone home?"

"Yes, and I tell you it was a lucky day for me when she came to the rescue with her help and good advice. Her experience with Dr. Chase's Nerve Food proved to be a blessing for me."
