Wx learn that on the 18th ult., Gronge Jackson, Esq., Crown Lands Agent, gave location tickets for upwards of twelve thousand acres of land in the township of Kincardine, in the new county of Bruce on Lake Huron. The land is divided into Lots of fifty acres each, and, as will be seen by an advertisement in another column, is given only to actual settlers. We are informed by those who have been at some trouble in obtaining the information, that the land throughout the whole tract that composes the new County, is of the very best quality, and plentifully supplied with springs and streams. The town plot is a beautiful situation on the lake there, at the mouth of the river, thirty miles above Goderich; where a good harbour can be formed at comparitively little expense. The Durham Road runs from Kincandine on the lake above forty-five miles to the Garrafraxa road leading from the town of Guelph to Owen's Sound. The distance from Toronto to Kincardine cannot be much greater than to Goderich, and a railroad passing through the townships of the rough the townships of the Government; and from the fact that within a few months upwards of three hundred settlers are subjected at times for the want of a printing press, it is high time that a newspaper should be established in Stratford in accordance with the wishes of the majority of the viababitants.

From the Toronto Globe. THE LEAGUE CONVENTION .- No. 1.

KINGSTON, July 26th, 1849. The combined efforts of the Annexation-attendance.

The names of the members in attendance I give you below, and it is quite evident from them what the Convention will be, and what it will do. They are nothing but the old backs and props of the old Tory party: what it will do. They are nothing out the sind greater, and more solid information for the judgment, in his method of teaching, than in any other that we have seen exhibited for a long time. Mr. Haldark does the daties of Examiner himself, with more efficiency, and with closer scrutiay than they would be performed by others, and while the satisfaction and zeal which he evinces in his irksome task, sufficiently ensure his success, the pride and laudable emulation of his scholars, warrant their speedy progress.

1. It will be seen by a reference to our advertising columns that Mr. A. G. Harch (late of Haysville,) has leased the Stratford Hotel rewertising columns that Mr. A. G. HATCH (late of Hapsville,) has leased the Stratford Hotel recently occupied by Mr. Isaac May. It is one of the best Inns on the road from Hamilton to Goderich, and from the general character of Mr. HATCH as a steady and accommodating Landlard, we have reason to expect that he will be successful in obtaining a fare share of patronage from the travelling public. Stratford is now the been so utterly disorganized; a good oppo-sition is absolutely necessary to the pros-perity of any Ministry, and all am fraid of is, that the one which will grow from this movement will be too weak to be of any service. Protection and Family Compactism can never be strong enough in Canada to give a moment's serious uncasiness to any Administration.

The Convention met for preliminary bu-siness last evening, at 8 P. M. in the City Hall. None but members were admitted, but the press have been furnished with the roceedings by the Secretary.
The Rev. James Green, delegate from

POSTSCRIPT. 1 THURSDAY AFTERNOON,

The row has begun quicker than I expected and more fiercely. The Convention met privately, as they call it, in committee this morning. This was to try and lick the wild men into shape; to rehearse the parts to be played before public. It was a total failure, however; the Lower Canadian men are more plucky than I thought them, and they stuck out like men for their principles, and all was at sixes and sevens when they adjourned to go into committee immediately. excluding the public. The fact is that the public are to be excluded; when every thing is discussed and settled, then the public will be admitted to hear the decision. No-unanimous conclusion will be come to, I am sure. They may exclude us if they please; but there will be no difficulty in finding out all they do. The row has begun quicker than I expec-
