This Date in History.

OCTOBER 3.
New Moon.
Days Past—216 To Come—89
ERNEST RENAN died 1892, aged 69. French writer. The beauty and clearness of the French language have seldom been better displayed than in Renan's crystal sentences.
TREATY OF LIMERICK signed 1691. The defence of Limerick is as famous in Irish history as that of Londonderry. There was at this time a vast exodus of the very flower of the Irish people to the Continent. Between 1691 and 1745 it is reckoned that 450,000 Irishmen died in the service of France; and many, who if they had remained at home would have lived in obscurity and degradation, attained positions of influence and power in every country on the Continent.
 A habit of sneering marks the egotist, or the fool, or the knave, or all three.

"At Home."

The annual "At Home" held by the members of George Street Bible Class on Wednesday evening proved equally as successful as former events. President Mr. C. Pratt told of the objects for which the affair is held each year. A concert then took place, the programme being:
Chorus—Class.
Solo—Miss G. Christian.
Read Quartette—M. G. B. Band.
Recitation—Mr. R. Hearder.
Solo—Mr. S. Green.
Pianoforte Duet—Mrs. R. Horwood and Miss M. Vey.
Solo—Miss Colton.
Solo—Miss Russell.
Recitation—N. Watson.
Solo—Mr. C. Hatcher.
Address—Rev. J. W. Bartlett.
 Refreshments were then served after which games were indulged in until midnight when the singing of Auld Lang Syne by the entire company brought the "At Home" to a close.

Not Even a Handshake.

Special to The Evening Telegram.
TRAPASSEY, To-day.
 Walsh, Morris and Devoraux landed last night at the Government wharf from the S. S. Portia on the way to Branch. The wharf was thronged with people. The Tory trio were met by a Government official, Devoraux, who was circulating Morris's Manifesto. The trio paraded the wharf and did not get one single cheer or even a handshake. When the steamer left the wharf cheers were given for Sullivan, Carty and Summers, the Liberal candidates and the hills re-echoed with
"BOND CAN'T LOSE."

Pouch Cove Speaks.

Dear Sir:—The People of Pouch Cove in St. John's East are indignant at the statement contained in the Herald a few days ago that they intended to vote for the Morris Party. The feeling there is, strongly in favour of Sir Robert Bond. The people resent having their opinions misrepresented and they wish to give Mr. Higgins to understand that he cannot trifle with them. A man drove to Pouch Cove last week and again this week with papers for the Morris Party, the people would have nothing to do with them. They took the papers and made a heap of them before his face and set fire to them making a bon fire and then sent him about his business. We intend to vote the straight ticket here for RENT, DWYER and RYAN.
 Yours truly,
 A REAL LIBERAL.
 Pouch Cove Oct. 1st, 1913.

FISH STEAMER AT ALICANTE.—The S. S. Gansford which loaded fish here for Harvey and Company, arrived at Alicante yesterday morning, after eleven days' passage. She will next proceed to Naples to land a portion of her cargo.

Manifesto of Sir R. Bond

It is the intention of the Leader of the Liberal Party to issue his Manifesto to the Electors of Newfoundland in The Evening Telegram tomorrow, Saturday. We invite our readers to look out for it. It will undoubtedly prove most interesting and instructive.

Captain Randall M. Fudge

The Liberal Standard Bearer in Fortune Bay.

As a sign of the uprising of the fishermen against the waste and extravagance of the Morris Government, and the plunder and graft that has disgraced our country during the past four years we see them calling out Captain Randall M. Fudge, of Belleoram, as Liberal Candidate for Fortune Bay to replace Mr. Emerson who has paid more attention to land grabbing and arbitration fees than he has to the welfare of his constituents. The people now recognize that what they have to look for in a representative is absolute honesty and straightness of purpose, and they feel certain that in Captain Randall Fudge they will not be disappointed. He is one of their own. Bone of their bone, and flesh of their flesh. They know him well and they love him for his worth. He has been a successful man. He has achieved success by living well; by filling his niche and accomplishing his task as sailor and fisherman; by looking for the best he had himself. Captain Fudge will make an ideal representative for the fishermen of Fortune Bay. We bespeak for him a great reception throughout his district and a triumphant return to the House of Assembly.

"Happy is the man whom the people delighteth to honour."

Captain Fudge has been honoured by a call from his brother fishermen, and they will honour him still more by placing him at the head of the poll.

Hr. Grace Notes.

WANTED—for the People's Party a candidate who would be disappointed with defeat in Harbor Grace. He must be a Graball, and even if he thinks so, he must not say Bond Can't Lose.

Dr. Cron, was seized with an attack of illness on Tuesday night while on his way home from Island Cove. The doctor had to be assisted out of his carriage on arrival. We are glad to be able to note that the genial doctor is much better to-day, and will no doubt soon be about again.

Two men were before the court yesterday on the charge of being drunk and fighting on the street. They were both fined for this breach of the peace.

The Harbor Grace Coal Company has another load of coal discharging now, and selling at $6.50 per ton.

Quite a large number of our fishermen are already home and others are on the way.

At a meeting of the Liberal Association held in St. Paul's Hall on Tuesday night about 150 persons were present. The meeting almost unanimously called out our highly-respected citizen George T. Gordon, to be our candidate at the general election this fall. Mr. Gordon, is a tradesman, a lover of his town and country. There is no two ways about him. He is a Liberal from the word go, and with the hearty support of the hosts of Liberal supporters here he feels sure that he will be elected to represent Harbor Grace in the Assembly for the next four years. George's word is his bond, and when he gave his consent to be nominated that moment his return became a foregone conclusion. He says positively Bond Can't Lose.

Dr. Lloyd and W. F. Coaker passed through this town by train this morning. It was a pity there was not some way of letting our people know they were en route to St. John's, and many would have been at the station to assist to roll the old (Liberal) chariot along with three and a tisor for Bond and our man Gordon.

A mishap occurred at the dock on Tuesday, as when about to take up a vessel the carriage of the dock became in some way out of order. The idea of taking her up had to be abandoned. We sincerely hope that nothing of a serious nature has occurred to cause the dock company expense in repairing damages.

Mr. Frank Cody, who has been very ill for the past couple of weeks was to-day able to take a drive, and will be o.k. in a few days.
 —COR.

The Police Court.

A seaman, drunk and disorderly, given in charge by his father, had to sign bonds.
 Two drunks were discharged.
 A fireman, drunk and refusing to support his wife and three children, was ordered to give two shillings in $40 each, or 29 days.
 A laborer, drunk for the fifth time was fined $4 or 14 days.
 A fireman, drunk and disorderly at the railway station, was fined $10 or 30 days.
 A fisherman, drunk and disorderly in his mother's house was remanded.

BOND Can't Lose.

The East End Liberal Committee Rooms, at the Mechanics' Hall, will be open from 9 a.m. to 11 p.m. each day (Sunday excepted). All Committee men are requested to be present at 7.30 p.m. each evening for the city canvass and other business. oct2,3i

Presentation.

Mr. William Martin, senior partner of the Martin Hardware Co., this city, and Mrs. Martin, who leave next week by the Furness Liner Digby to make their future home in Torquay, England, were the recipients, last night, of a handsome memento of the regard and esteem in which they are held by the members and adherents of Queen's Road Congregational Church.
 The presentation was made at an "At Home" held in the Lecture Hall, Rev. W. H. Thomas, Pastor of the Church, presiding. The first part of the programme consisted of songs and recitations in which Misses Colton, Cresswell, Langmead and Rita Pippy and Messrs. G. Langmead, sr., and Thomas (Rev.) took part, then the Chairman called on Mr. Edward Thomas, sr., the oldest member of the church present (having been for over half a century closely identified with Queen's Road Church life in all its phases) to introduce the prominent part of the social evening's business. Mr. Thomas in an affecting manner briefly referred to the many estimable qualities of our departing friends asking for, and assuring Mr. and Mrs. Martin of the united prayers and good wishes—for their future—of all the members of Queen's Road Congregational Church.

 Mrs. G. Langmead, President of the Ladies' Aid Society, in a pleasing manner, ably supported the remarks of Mr. Thomas and in the name of the Ladies' Aid and all members of the Church and congregation handed Rev. W. H. Thomas a very handsome Silver Salver, requesting him to make the presentation.
 The pastor in a few well chosen words, referring particularly to his own short acquaintance with them, in a social and moving sense, called on Mr. and Mrs. Martin to the front and made the presentation, asking them to take a handle each.
 The recipients, who were both visibly affected made fitting replies.
 Mr. and Mrs. Martin have been closely identified with Queen's Road Church for over 30 years, during which period they have seen five pastors come and go, and they have ever been "to the front" in all matters pertaining to the social and moral welfare of the Church and Congregation. Mr. Martin having been Treasurer of the Church for the past 12 years, whilst Mrs. Martin has ever been active in connection with the Ladies' Aid and Auxiliary of the Home Missionary Society.

They will carry with them to their new home in the Old Homeland, the best wishes of a host of friends in this city, besides those of the Congregational Church, and as Mr. Martin expressed himself last night, he and his good wife will ever have in their new home an "open door" to all Newfoundland friends who come their way.
 The Salver which is beautifully engraved with the Church (inset) in the centre has the following inscription:—"Presented to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Martin by the members, adherents and Ladies' Aid of Queen's Road Congregational Church, on the occasion of their leaving St. John's, Newfoundland, as a token of sincere regard and esteem, and in appreciation of their splendid loyalty, magnificent devotion and unbounded generosity.—1913."
 After the presentation, refreshments were served by the Ladies' Aid, and a pleasant and memorable evening closed with the singing of the Doxology.

Your Duty.
 Nothing to do with the Custom House, good friend. Its only reference just now is to yourself. Let us suppose that you are a man of family with sufficient of the world's goods to keep them in comfort. Very well. You did not reach this satisfactory state of affairs without care and labour—few men do. Suppose you are awakened some night with shouts of alarm ringing in your ears. Too late then to talk of prudence; too late then to say: "If I had only, etc., etc." that "If" means too much to many forgetful people. Is it not always the duty of a self-respecting citizen to protect his home and thus provide for those within it. Is it any more than his duty to those depending on him to protect them as far as possible? Can you call your property your own when it is not insured? The answer to this argument is to carry insurance with Percie Johnson's agency, the most popular office in Newfoundland and the least expensive.
