LONDON, June 5.
John Redmond, to-day, declined the request of the Irish women suffragists, that he receive a deputation on the subject of the inclusion of women as electors for the Irish parliament. Mr. Redmond pointed out that previous deputations of this nature had caused only unpleasantness; and reiterated the view that Ireland under Home Rule must decide for herself, whether she wants women voters.

LONDON, June 5.
In consequence of suffragette attacks, Churches in many parts of the country are being closed, except for the usual Sunday services. A sample notice, being posted by rectors, is as follows: "Owing to dastardly outrages by frenzied criminals, who have no regard for God or man, this church will be closed, except during the hours of Divine service."

BERLIN, June 5.
Kaiser William will be present at the launching of the newest Hamburg-American liner on June 20th. The vessel, which will be several thousand tons larger than the Vaterland, will be called the Bismarck, the name approved by His Majesty. The Emperor is expected to make an important announcement as to the future German Mercantile Marine.

QUEBEC, June 5.
H.M.S. Essex, at present in port, is scheduled to leave sometime to-day for Father Point, where divers will attempt an inspection of the wreck of the Empress of Ireland.

LONDON, June 5.
Officials of the Women's Social Political Union, the militant suffragettes organization, deny responsibility for the incident at Buckingham Palace last night, when a woman interrupted the presentations by throwing herself at the King's feet and shouting: "For God's sake do not use force."

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 5.
Passengers from the Eastern Line steamer Northland, bound from New York for Portland, Maine, which went ashore at Bartlett's Reef, late last night, were safely landed in this city. The captain and crew of the Northland remained aboard the ship, which is in no immediate danger. The weather, locally, is fair.

NEW YORK, June 5.
The Aquitania, the new liner of the Cunard Company, and the largest ship afloat under the British flag, arrived at quarantine to-day, on her maiden voyage to this port. She made good time after passing all danger from the icefields, which held down her speed, on Wednesday and yesterday. The last wireless reports gave her speed as 23.22 knots, and for 24 hours up to noon of yesterday she covered 602 nautical miles. The Aquitania made the passage in 5 days, 17 hours and 43 minutes, over a course of 3,181 miles.

College Degrees.

By GEORGE FITCH,
Author of "At Good Old Smash."

In a few weeks the 1914 crop of college degrees will be ripe. Indications are that it will be a bumper crop and will be harvested as usual in great solemnity with speeches and mortar boards.

It takes four years to ripen an ordinary college degree, while the fancy varieties take three years longer. Contrary to the case of other crops, college degrees ripen best in extremely dry localities. Nothing is as hard on a degree as moisture. It causes conditions, flunks, expulsions and many other serious diseases. Sometimes as little as a quart of moisture will ruin a degree entirely. However, in Germany the irrigation system is extensively practiced and Muenchener and Prussian are used more extensively than Greek and Latin in ripening the crop.

There are many kinds of college degrees, including "A. B.," "A. M.," "S. S.," "Ph. D.," "D. D.," and "E. P. O. R. T." After the student has harvested his degree, he hangs it on the end of his name and lets it trail gracefully behind him through life. A man who has acquired a degree is universally respected because of this fact and is allowed by a grateful nation to cast his big vote in municipal elections as the man who has acquired a flaming red nose by irrigating himself at the expense of the precinct leader for fifteen years.

Some men are not satisfied with one degree but keep on acquiring them until their names look like kites with alphabetical tails. The second degree is easier to acquire than the first, because the student does not have to play so much football while raising it. As a rule the third degree is given to the anxious young scholar by the business world after he gets out of school and tries to exchange a thorough knowledge of Greek and Latin for three square meals a day.

Destroyed by Fire.

Special to Evening Telegram.

DERBY, June 5.
The ancient historic Church of Beardsall, dating back to the Norman times, and containing many priceless relics, was destroyed by fire during the night. Suffragists suspected.

Antigonish, May 28.—A severe electrical storm past over this country this morning between the hours of seven and nine o'clock, accompanied by frequent downpours of rain. At Beasley, about ten miles from town, a young man, the son of William Fraser, was struck by lightning and killed instantly. Mr. Fraser was in the barn at the time the lightning struck. Part of the barn was demolished and a horse and cow were also killed. Great sympathy is felt for Mr. Fraser in the sudden and violent death of a promising son.
