about 100 guns echoed and re-echoed and when she struck the wharf three cheers were given for Bennett and Better Times, and also for Monroe and colleagues. The wharf was crowded with men. Fully 250 were there to greet the Opposition candidates. There was also a brass band of sixteen pieces present. We then lined up and marched with Monroe and Little right through the town, passing under two splendid arches erected for the ocasion with the mottoes "Bennett and Better Times,""No Regulations,""Save our Labrador," "Save our Fisheries."

Such a reception was never given to Honesty.

During the night of Tuesday, April Oth, a large pane of plate glass was proken by a party unknown in the 'Dominion Cafe," Water Street, Kim Lee, Proprietor. The glass was promptly replaced April 12th by

The same day Kim Lee received unannote from a man of honor, to pay for the glass as he wished to remain unknown. The glass, however, cost only seventy-one dollars and seventy cents and Kim Lee was anxious to return the amount overpaid to the gentleman.

An advertisement in Thursday's Telegram reached the unknown gentleman and arrangements were promptly made with him and the change due, party who has concealed his identity.

These acts on the part of the gentleman who broke the glass and paid the "debt of honor," as well as the fact of the Chinese Proprietor of the restaurant advertising for the party unknown, and returning him the change is certainly creditable to both parties and shows the highest.

nor did he intend to. He referred to the latest move of the Government in taking over the Street Railway. The terms of this contract as well as the Humber should be placed before the people. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were lost when the Government took over the fisheries, and it will be the same with the Railway System which has never paid since it was started. The reports of the Committee show that every day the tide is growing stronger in Bennett's favor. Hundreds of people who were Squires' supporters last election, are now with the Bennett Party, whilst only a negligible number can be found who have turned over to the Squires-Coaker party.
