At 9:30 a.m. W. J. Waugh, first vice-president, of Hamilton, presiding, W. S. Frost, of Orillia, gave an interesting ad-dress, full of good points, on "Work in small towns; how to organize, develop and sustain." A lengthy discussion followed, in which a large number of delegates took part and expressed various opinions. They all believed, however, that a n.istake was often made in organizing too soon.

often made in organizing too soon.

The commercial travelers' delegates were then introduced. Mr. Stewart, president of the Dominion Union, explained the origin of the travelers' association. London, Toronto, Hamilton and Montreal had representatives in it. Each Saturday evening cards of invitation were sent to the travelers at each hotel asking them to attend church on Sunday. Signs of a revival among the travelers were already seen. He asked for the sympathy of the Y. M. C. A.s and their secretaries in the work.

THE TWO COMMISSIONS. Conference on Reciprocity-The Bering

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13.—The Canadian Reciprocity Commissioners had another con-ference with Secretary Blaine and Gen. Foster yesterday. Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British Minister, attended the conference.

The Bering Sea Joint Commission has journed until to-day when it is expected at the reports prepared by the represent-ives of Great Britain and the United States will be submitted for consideration. It is expected that Lord Salisbury will act on the arbitration treaty next week and that the matter will then be submitted to the Senate without delay. It is thought the modus vivendi of last year will be re-newed in time to anticipate the departure of the sealing fleet. The arbitrators will ratified. Hon. E. J. Phelps, ex-Minister to England, will be leading counsel for the United States.
