Mr. Geo. C. Gibbons was called upon, but owing to a severe cold and the lateness of the hour declined to speak at length. He had found since the revision of the last lists that over 500 voters had left the city, a good many because there was no inducement to keep them here. "We are going to give this country a chance for her manufactures as well as natural produce. (Cheers.) True loyalty does not consist in marching up and down in this country calling more than half the people traitors. Mr. James Anderson, president of the local assembly of Reformers, in a few words introduced Wm. McGregor, the candidate of Unrestricted Reciprocity. Mr. McGregor was received with tumultuons cheers. He explained his platform in lucid words. The farmers being the first people in the country, it was necessary that they should be loyal. The Reformers were as loyal as any people. The next cry was the "old policy." We have tried it, but it has proved a failure of the first water. It is a system that makes the rich richer and the poor poorer. It is our duty to be loyal to ourselves first. Mr. McGregor handled the annexation question well, showing up the annexationists in the Conservative party.

the annexation question well, showing up the annexationists in the Conservative party.

Sir Richard Cartwright on rising was received with loud and prolonged cheers. He proceeded to deal with the objections urged against reciprocity as advanced by the Liberals of Canada, which were: Discrimination against England, the bugbear of direct taxation, the bugbear of annexation, and disposed of them in the most effectual manner. He quoted Sir John Macdonald's diagraceful words used at Halifax when he spoke there of the foreign ignorance and vice in the States. Sir Richard's handling of this part was loudly applauded by the audience, many of whom were closely connected with the people across the border, Sir John's attempt to manufacture capital by crying treason against Mr. Farrer was thoroughly ridiculed. Sir Richard closed a telling speech of two hours' duration with a magnificent percration.

Mr. Alexander Cameron addressed the meeting briefly, and it afterwards closed with cheers for Sir Richard, William Megregor and the Queen.

FOR THE TANKARD.

TORONTO, Feb. 19.—Yesterday the final matches for the Ontario Tankard began. The Walkertons were knocked out by the Granites, Williamson's rink doing the trick with the last stone. Plattsville and Chatham, drawn against Belleville and Guelph, did not put in an appearance, and their opponents were then pitted against each other. Paris and Lakefield played only fourteen ends, the Lakefield stones having been sent to the wrong rink. The second round was played last night in order to have all clear for to-day. Following are Spurgeon and Savory—A Singular Coincidence.

London, Feb. 21.—The Pall Mall Gazette publishes in parallel columns a serimon which Rev. Chas. H. Spurgeon preached in 1864 and an adlress delivered by Lord Mayor Joseph Savory, of London, last week at the Polytechnic Young Men's Christian Institute for apprentices, artisans, etc., in Regent street. The two discourses are identical in almost every particular, long passages in the Spurgeon sermon being delivered unchanged in the Lord Mayor's address. Lord Mayor Savory, whose attention was called to this singular coincidence, said he was unaware of the similarity existing between his recent oration and Spurgeon's pulpit utterances of 1864.
The Lord Mayor added that he had never,
to the best of his knowledge, seen the sermon referred to.
