South London Methodists' Annual Tea Meeting.

Fine Programme in the Askin Street Church.

Speeches by Revs. W. M. Walker, Dr. Daniel and Geo. Jackson.

A successful tea-meeting marked the close of the first anniversary services of Askin Street Methodist Church since the extensive improvements to the edifice. The large school-room was provided with tables prettily decorated ada alone spends $16 per capita on hi- had -a-ter wait with flowers and laden with delicacies, as well as dishes of substantial diet. The spread was one that equaled, if! indeed it did not surpass those of any previous anniversary teas, for the pro- by viding of which the tadies of the church are famous.
