P. C. Campbell arrested two able-bodied young fellows this morning for begging on Queen's avenue. At the station they were charged with vegrancy and gave their names as Ed. McKenna, a former resident of Corktown, but now of Detroit, and Ed. J. Royden, a printer, who gave Bay City, Mich., as his home. On the prisoners were found several nice, clean bandkerchiefs, which the police believe were once hanging on some ciothes line. A valuable manicure instrument was also found on one of them. Jackson-Heis Captured.

Jackson, Mich., March 28.—R. Irving Latimer, the matricide, sent to prison three years ago for murdering his mother, escaped from prison shortly after midnight yesterday. He poisoned Geo.
W. Haight, the night captain of the prison, secured the keys and a rifle, and left by the front gates. Night Guard David Haight died at 1:50 a.m. Latimer, after securing a rifle, attempted to liberate the prisoners in the west wing near his own cell, but failed. There is no clue to his whereabouts. Every officer in the city and hundreds of others are looking for him.

Jackson, March 29.—A dispatch has been received by the operator at the Lake Shore depot saying that Latimer has been caught at Jerome, Hillsdale county.
