One of the oldest and best mills in Ireland produces it for us. Generations of experience are behind their knowledge of homespun making.

This mill makes a particularly high grade homespun for us under our trade name of "Kilalo." Semi-ready controls the output of that quality, and any patterns we select are exclusive to us.

We make "Kilalo" homespun into two-piece suits and summer trousers. It is stylish-looking fabric-so much so that it has entirely taken the place of flannels. Prices $15 to $20.

During the first part of the contest Hanlon had a slight advantage, but no harm was done to either man until the eleventh round. Then Hanlon rushed Corbett to the ropes, but the Denver man stalled Hanlon off and blocked a number of stomach punches. Corbett got to the center of the ring, and in a mix-up put left and right swings on Hanlon's jaw. Hanlon went to his knees and took the count of nine. He came up fighting, and in spite of Corbett's strenuous efforts to put him out, he finished the round strong. For the next four rounds Corbett went at his man, and in the thirteenth had Hanlon very tired. Hanlon braced up in the fourteenth, and seemed to have a slight margin over Corbett. The fifteenth round was about even. Haulon landed a left and right to the jaw. but did no harm. The sixteenth round was Corbett's. The seventeenth was Hanlon's round. The eighteenth was about even, although Corbett had a shade the better of it at the end. The nineteenth and twentieth were all Hanlon's. During the nincteenth he stood up close to Corbett, pounding away at the Denver boy's stomach. Corbett was tired and could not nit In the twentieth round Hanton came up stronger and went right at his man. They stood breast to breast, each with his head to the other's shoulder, and "slugged" for all that was in them. Hanlon was the stronger and forced Corbett around the ring, playing a lively tattoo on his stomach. He fought Corbett against the ropes and Steard also ran.
