Rev. Mr. Bingham's evening subject was "The Glory of the Cross," from the text, "And I, if I be lifted up, will draw all men unto me." The cross is glorious, as the one great rallying centre of the race, which excels all other rallying centres, in cluding Confucianism, Buddhism and Monammedanism. The message of the cross is the gospel of God's love to man. The cross is the ensign of victory; it is the revelation of God's eternal purpose redemption, and it lifts all men to the vantage ground of glory. Mr. Scott recently accepted a position as traffic manager of the Lake Shore electric road, which has taken him away from London and out of touch with football. A meeting of the executive will be held in this city a week from tomorrow to group the clubs in both series, and to give a final decision in the matter of the application from Hamilton.

From the facts gleaned from the decision Ingerleid made up his mind in 1908 that he would take his wife on a trip to Pennsylvania. Whether or not he was certain that she would not go when he asked her was not stated. Nevertheless he proposed the trip. She did refuse or failed to go. He packed his grip and left the house. However, he did not go far.

But late at night he returned to the house, and, pulling off his shoes at the Swindon Town .. 0 Crystal P 0 front steps, crept in noiselessly. He went to a room upstairs and waited. In the course of time he heard other footsteps, and after a time he broke into a room.

The man he found was the defendant in this sult, he declared, Edward Bullen. Suit for alienation was begun and a verdict of $400 was obtained from the jury which heard the evidence. But the husband thought he was entitled to more. And this is what the chief justice has to say on that point:
