PRAYER FOR THE WIFE.

Grant to my husband and his daily tasks the blessing of successful accomplishment. Reward his work with encouraging results. May his efforts bring him credit and business advancement.

If he meets with any failure give him strength to bear it manfully, knowing that it is not always possible for plans to carry as we desire. Give him patience, prudence and foresight.

In the many temptations that come up in business life for gain to be made by sharp dealing or dishonorable methods, keep his mind and his soul crear to discern evil from good. May he not vary a jot from the rule of strict int grity and fairness to his fellow-men, that he may earn their respect and affection.

Give him strength of mind and keenness to detect foes and faise doers. May he be fine enough to show charity to his enemies and seek not re-

Give him strength of mind and keenness to detect fees and false doers. May he be fine enough to show charity to his enemies and seek not revenge for injuries in kind. May he injure no man in word or deed.

Let cheerfulness and good hope keep him keyed to earnest work, May he show kindness and consideration for those with whom he is associated and whom he may direct in their tasks. Let his speech be temperate and clean. Give him control of temper and mind in all distressing situations. Keep him from overdoing that may tire him in mind and body. Let his thoughts occasionally rise from shop or office to the inspirations of life. Guard him from danger and illness, from despondency or the errors of improper association.

Improper association.

Keep him in heart and mind true to his home and family.

May his affections broaden and make happy his moments of leisure and bring him safely to us at the day's end.

TASTY SANDWICHES FOR THE SCHOOL LUNCH BASKET

Brown bread, graham, whole wheat and white, make many changes, especially when a different filling is added. Cold muffins and gems are good at the noon hour if there is a dainty "aurprise" in their milds. Cookies wafers and crackers make the sweet necessary when the neavy part of the luncheon is over, and they are considered an unusual dessert if a bit of jam or jelly is put between two of them.

A delicious filling for saminants is made ty mixing equal parts of cream cheese and snappy cheese with French dressing to a smooth paste, then stirring in it chopped red peopers or chopped offices.
