GREAT UNEMPLOYMENT NOT LIKELY TO RESULT

LONDON, Oct. 7.-7:43 p.m.-David Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, in a speech today to a deputation of the Workers' National Committee, said it was not at all sure that they were not a little premature in anticipating a very considerable amount of unemployment as the war progressed.

The demand upon the industries in this country, the chancellor said, would be enormous but in the cotton today. be enormous, but in the cotton trade the distress undoubtedly would be severe. That was the only trade, he added, which had completely broken
