ut-of-doors, and most people in the city took advantage of the holiday to own-town streets to the freshness and omparative comfort of the "breathing spots." Port Stanley, at its best at this time of the year, was easily first favorite, and the Traction Company handled more passenger traffic than on any other day in the history of the line.

The Springhank care also cavainst the standard with wounded in trenches all day and brought them all safely to the standard tracks.

what street railway officials declare was a record crowd to the park. A great nany picnics were held, and the many were well patronized. In the early evening a smart shower of rain drove holiday-makers to the shelter the pavilion and other buildings, but the big storm which has appeared to be threatening did not materialize, and the downpour served only to cool the air without dampening spirits.

oon London itself appeared to be most a deserted city. The downtown sections were almost entirely alear of pedestrians, and practically the nly traffic on the streets consisted of street cars, jitneys and private autoand rigs carrying people who were on their way either to Springor the Port. London's most y inhabited spot was Victoria where a number of people who disinclined for a longer jaunt found that relief from the stifling heat which they could not find anywhere else

New York, July 2—Wall Street, 10:30 a.m.—Passing of the dividend on United States Rubber, common, after the close of yesterday's market, was followed at today's opening by a decline of almost 7 points. The stock opened after considerable delay with an offering of 5,000 shares at 45 to 46, against yesterday's final quotation of 51%. The balance of the list was irregular, some minor railways and specialties yielding fractions, while Canadian Pacific and American Coal Products was a feature of the inactive issues, advancing 9 points to 127 in the first half hour.

Non.—Rubber continued to decline to 44%, but recovered to 45%. Sales of Rubber in the first hour amounted to 25,000 shares, and with Can made uphalf of the operations of that period. Investment stocks and high-priced war specialties were unaffected by the break in Rubber, making further impovement until Canadian Pacific developed sudden weakness. That stock lost its early gain of 1%, and fell a total of 2½ points to 142, within a fraction of its low record. Later prices hardened again on a smaller volume cial Institute, Sacred Heart Convent, after a year of earnest study, have reached in the recent examination the very creditable showing given below. Each year adds to the list of those who creditably passed the tests required by the school before the pupils enter into the world of business. Last week the Underwood credential test was given them. To pass this test 30 net words per minute is required. All the pupils acquitted themselves admirably, all obtaining the pass mark and several surpassing the usual standing of 40 words net per minutt.

The following list sustains the stan-dard set by the school, that if impressing apon the students' minds the
