FRUIT OFFERINGS

ARE NEARING END

Hay Supplies More Plentiful

—Tomatoes On the

Up-Grade.

The fruit offerings on the local market are practically finished, according to local dealers, although a few stragglers of lots of peaches, plums and grapes are still to be picked up. Peaches are very scarce, and being sold for 65c for the pound, but the market is a little easier than it has been for some time, owing to the supplies being shipped in from outside districts. They were quoted to day at 10c to 12c a bushel.

Tomatoes went a little higher this morning, when they were quoted at 35c and 40c for a 15-pound basket, with a continued tendency to climbing.

Hay offerings are becoming a little more plentiful, and the market is a little easier, although the price still remains firm.

Cauliflowers are a little easier, selling at 15c to 40c each, a drop from 20c to 25c for a 15-pound basket.

There was a fairly good offering of spring chickens at 22c to 25c a pound. The demand was fair.
