ne of the prettiest pitching duels of the season, and one in which the loser emerged with as much glory as did the victor. Billings was forced to turn in one of the best games of his career in order to pull out a victory for his team. So good was his opponent on the mound. For seven innings Bill held the McVean crew scoreless, and to one hit, a sharp single secured by Bill McFadden in the first. In the eighth a two-bagger and a single were secured off his delivery, the total liberties taken by the Dresdenites for the afternoon being three.

After getting a runner as far as second in the third, and retiring in one, two, three order in the fourth the Saints came back and scored their last run in the fifth. Snapper Binns opened the doings with a single between first and second. Johnson fanned Evans. Doan nit to Wall and was out at first on a close play, Binns going to second. Riseborough hit a dinky roller which dribbled through the diamond about midway between the box and first. Johnson started after the ball. Wall started after the ball, but both players stopped, one thinking the other was going to field it, and the pill rolled a few feet past the base line. In the meantime the dentist had reached first with no the dentist had reached first with no attempt made to make a play on him, and Binns had started for third. Rounding the bag, Snapper tore for home, and beat Johnson's throw, but Riseborough was out in an attempt to reach second on the throw-in, McFadden to Blackwell.

In the seventh Graham started off with a single, but was left stranded.

Coogan's Sacrifice Fly Wins Game After His Homer Tied It.

Special to The Advertiser. Hamilton, Sept. 6.—After pulling the first game out of the fire in the ninth the Clippers lost all hope of winning the second half honors of the Mint League here this afternoon when they dropped the second game of the double bill to the London Tecumsehs. The scores were 3—2, and 3—1. Karl Adams with pully a short rest worked the opening the London recumsens. He were 3-2, and 3-1. Karl Adams with only a short rest, worked the opening game and pitched brilliantly to win. Schwab's homer, which tied the score in a the eighth, made it possible for the Wetzel clan to win in the ninth when Roper reached first safely, and scored when Kernan hit McGee in the back trying to peg him out on an attempted sacrifice. Bill Coogan was touched for 11 hits in the seven inning affair, but was strong with men on bases. He won his game practically single-handed driving out a home run to tie the count and then scoring another with a sacrifice fly to center. DELAYED ENCOURAGEMENT.

Billy Carroll of the Hamilton Club, one of the heaviest losers in the M. O., saw a 7.000 crowd at an amateur game that caused the professional owner to shake his head, but Saturday's 3,000 crowd at the closing games of the league with London must have caused another change of heart. It is extremely doubtful if the change was sufficient to bring the Hamilton sportsman—and he is that—to the decision to stay in the Mint League. The Hamilton Club is not likely to retrieve much in the way of losses

A meeting of the local club will be called this week or early next and the year's operations translated into figures will be available.

The action of the Inter-Provincial Rugby Union in forming a junior association brings bockey and football forward as the only two sports in Canada in which there is an attempt made t develop junior material. The O. B. A. A. will probably follow suit next year, after finding that juveniles and juniors cannot develop as they should with precarious support coming only from the governing hold, itself only from the governing body itself.

FOOTBALL RULES.

With more than a hint of autumn and rugby in the air the last few days and local football squads about to start their training, changes in the rules made by the O. R. U. for this season become seasonal. The changes in brief are:

Firpo Reasserts Innocence of Charges Brought Against Him.

Associated Press Despatch.

New York, Sept 7.—The arrest of Luis Angel Firpo on a warrant from Washington, charging him with violating the immigration law, his subsequent admission to ball, and postponement of hearing of the case until four days after his scheduled meeting with Harry Wills, Sept. 11, were the outstanding developments over the week-end in the deportation proceedings instituted by Canon William Sheafe Chase of Brooklyn. deportation proceedings instituted by Canon William Sheafe Chase of Brooklyn.

There was a broad grin on the Argentinian's face as he stepped off the Ellis Island ferry yesterday, free again, after his attorney, Hymen Bushel, had deposited $1,000 in Liberty bonds with the immigration officials. Firpo reasserted his innocence of the two charges brought against him, and said he was more worried over protecting the name of the woman in the case than he is over his own predicament. He will conduct his future training bouts in Madison Square Garden.

St. Marys Overtake Five-Run Lead To Beat St. Peters.

LATTER BLEW UP

Sunshine Park Saturday afternoon ailing a 5-0 lead obtained by St. eters in the early innings, St. Marys aunched a three-run onslaught in that rame, and followed it up when Nopper's support blew still higher in the eighth with another, with four more runs. The rally gave the east-enders 7-6 verdict over the St. Peters nine in the first game of the series to decide the championship of the C. A. A.

Seven errors behind Nopper, five of which came in the seventh and eight frames, wasted a good pitching performance, but errors also figured in most of the run-getting off the delivery of Remi Durand. Each was touched up for eleven hits.

An error, passed ball and McIntyre's double scored St Peter's first run. Singles by Noonan and Pook and a walk to Henry filled the bases in the second. Two runs were unloaded off, a wild pitch sending in the second. Ward's fielders' choice which was unplayable scored Pook, on through an error. Nopper's infield hit tallied in Nopper allowed but one hit per inning in the first five. In the sixth Durand bunted, and as Kelleher doubled to center, raced for home. Noonan's peg through the knoll nipped him at the plate, and Kelleher was made a second with the seventh St. Marys got their breaks. Two errors by Ward and a McGuire's single to short tallied Howard.
