TUESDAY MORNING, JUNE 20, 1882.

Persons leaving town for the season, and summer visitors, who have their names on the list for the paper, please send their names to the publishers, or to the printer, for their names to be deleted.

THE RESULTS SO FAR.

In 22 seats there will be no contest, and of the 22 members returned by acclamation the conservatives claim 21 as supporters of Sir John Macdonald's government.

TO-DAY.

What The World wishes most to see in the elections over, the political excitement, the differences of the contest forgotten, and business assume its wonted course.

We hope that this is the last election that will be fought on the old Tory and grid lines. We hope as we know that the next contest will be on broader issues.

The public may depend on reliable and impartial announcements. As we have no party to serve no returns will be withheld, but everything will be given just as it comes from the wires.

THEY WHO ARE ABOUT TO DIE.

There are 176 seats to be contested to-day and there are at least 352 men anxious to fill them; as a consequence 176 will be left.

SEASONABLE NOTES.

Two things that the people need most at this time are fans and stubble collars. The latter are rare in hot weather; the former are in great demand.

SECTARIANISM IN THE SCHOOL ROOM.

A movement has been made in the Episcopal and Presbyterian denominations for introducing the bible as a text book in the public schools.

Dumb beasts suffer frightfully when the mercury is in the nineties. Street cars and the animals compelled to drag trucks and heavy vehicles through the streets under the scorching rays of the sun.

Ladies are content to endure a great deal of misery for mere fashion's sake at all times, but never in the summer. Then they are fashion's slaves indeed.

LETTER FROM MR. O'KEEFE.

To The World: I wish to correct the statement which appeared in your issue of yesterday, to the effect that Belden Ross had a quantity of stereotype plates of Pictorial Canada destroyed in Saturday's fire.

TO ALL STRIKERS.—Strikers would do well to consider Guinness's liberal offer before going elsewhere. They are in sympathy with the present movement, and to the extent that they are agreed to supply from their own stores, trunks and wholesale prices, which they will guarantee.

TO THE FOUNDERS AND TRUE FRIENDS OF THE NATIONAL POLICY.—The Conservative Party are now called upon to decide the election. It is not a matter of life and death, but it is a matter of principle.
