United States Wheat Revenue.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Assistant Secretary Brigham of the Agricultural Department, to-day expressed the opinion that the American farmers this year would receive in the aggregate from four to five hundred million dollars in excess of that received last year for their wheat. "This seems like a vast sum, but statistics sustain the claim." Colonel Brigham also predicted that the increase in the price of farm products would benefit the laboring element.

witnessed before in the actory of the worth. The cash expenditure has outstripped by far all previous attempts of the kind. We have seen many buildings on which the cost of decorations has run up into the thousands of pounds. To say that all this expenditure has been carried into effect in the most artistic way that a skilled head or hand could devise is to say little.

On Jubilee evening great London, the city of cities, was one blinding blaze of illumination. From Richmond to Woolwich on each side of the Thames, and from Hampstead to Crystal Palace the other way, it was a dascing sea of various tinted lights. Between these points were acres of incandescents, myriads of jets of light in all conceivable devices and designs. Fire and flame was indeed used to magnificent effect to demonstrate the warm feelings of the people on this glorious occasion. Along with all this was a continuous murmur, which frequently burst into loud shouts of applause to end with the singing of the national anthem. this glorious occasion. Along with all this was a continuous murmur, which frequently burst into loud shouts of applause to end with the singing of the national anthem. As we worked our way down Piccadilly past some of the stands and clubs the scenes were very amusing. Here would be a group at a window which had undoubtedly drunk many times to the health of Her Majesty, singing and ent-bracing each other in a very hilarious manner. Another, away in a second or third story would be singing "God save the Queen" in which it would appear that the singer was contemplating a nap next moment. He, however, would be kept awake by the crowd of boys answering him with their hurrahs and shouts. Another would be keeping time to a squad of singers at his window with a rat-tat-too. And then all the way would be seen the weary who had perhaps started at three o'clock in the morning to get to their stands, now fast

Thousands have roamed and driven about the streets all night during this week singing "God save the Queen." I have heard them lumbering along past our house long after daylight, singing their muddled melody of spirits, suffering from an over dose of exuberance now on the decline.

And who took part in these grand manifestations of loyalty and delight? Was it only the typical Londoner? Not by any means. The American, the Irish, the Scotch, the Russian, the Oriental and the Pole each had his little street illuminated and decorated.

The Daily Telegraph thus describes the illumination of St. Paul's. I did not see them to good advantage. "The electric illumination of St. Paul's dome was unique and could hardly be beaten by foreign rivalry. The work was done on the search light system, the luminosity being thrown on the building by seventy projectors, chiefly worked from the summits of neighboring houses. The cross was strongly illuminated, and the dome appeared to be lighted from within. It shone like a great silver ball, and the effect, seen from a distance, must have been marvellous by filliant. Changing lights were obtained by placing over the lens-colored discs, of which about four hundred were required by the projectors. Each of the latter is sup-Seats Free in both churches. Would they strangle the shild of their own conception? Let us hope that better thoughts will prevail and that these stumbling blocks in the way of the goal we are seeking may be set aside. Surely it is a matter of more importance to have corporate rights for our town; to have the control and spending of the taxes we have to contribute; the control of our streete both by night and day; to be able to check rowdy-ism and to make it possible for law-abiding citizens to walk along our streets without AS enquiries are frequently made at this offlice by parties in the "Old Country" wishing to emigrate, about farms in Nova Scotia for sale, their location, quality and price, and not having the necessary information at hand, it is intended to publish a list of farms for sale for the information of all such. MEAL

..AND.. FEED

The undersigned now have on hand two carloads of OGILVIE'S HUNGARIAN Flour and it is the highest grade made in America. No other flour will make as much bread to the barrel. It absorbs more water, therefore the bread will keep moist longer. It will make good pastry if you will only use enough water. Knead thoroughly and give it time to absorb the water. If you are not using it you should as it will save you

We are landing to-day, one car of CORNMEAL in barrels and bags. Also a large quantity of Oatmea, Tilson's Pan Dried Registered Rolled Oats, which makes a delicious porridge. We have it in ten pound sacks. Try it.

Shore Table Codfish, the best we KINNEY & SHAFNER.

TWe have a few quintals of
