WEEKLY MONITOR.

Local and Special News.

the Weekly Monitor,

-Lost-Fountain pen. Finder will be warded by leaving at this office. At Bridgetown, Annapolis Co, N. S. -Mayor Shafner is expected home M. K. PIPER, Proprietor and Publisher rom his Mexican trip this week.

Terms—$1.50 per yeur; allowed at $1.00 if paid strictly in advance. -Frosh oysters on halfshell or stew, at Mrs. A. J. Weir's, opposite Post Postage-Prepaid to any address in Canada or the United States.

or the orner of Address. When ordering change of address, both old and new addresses should be given. Notice should be sent one week before change is to take effect. -Mr. W. A. Kinney is established in is new and up-to-date quarters in the rimrose building. -A sum of money found recently ill be restored to owner if he will all at this office and prove property,

To Discontinue—The Montron will not be discontinued to any subscriber's address until a request is made, and arrears, if any, are paid in full at the rate of $1.60 per year. -Oysters, Clams, Finnan Haddie, Salmon, Kippered Herring, Corned Beef, Tomatoes, Beans and other canned goods at Mrs. A. J. Weir's.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 28TH, 1903

-Nominations for town officials took place yesterday. The cards of the op-posing nominated candidates appear in our advertising columns. -That the abolition of duty on coal imports by the United States will be followed by a corresponding concession on the part of Canada seems quite -- It is rumoured that a grocer form improbable. It was with the expectaerly doing business in this town is about to return and re-establish himof reciprocal relations being ef-low suit. As this paper has already pointed out, the purpose of the aboli-tion of the duty is to secure a supply of foreign coal for United States use. It is a temporary measure intended to meet a temporary emergency, and makes no suggestion of reciprocity. "It therefore remains for Canada to legislate absolutely and wholly in the interest of Canada. If Parliament thinks that Canada would be benefited by the free admission of foreign coal, let the duty come off. Other questions might arise in respect to the impor-ation of coal from Great Britain, but that is not now an important factor hat is not now an important factor in the case. "If absolute and permanent free trade in coal between Canada and the Uni d States can be established, there will ed States can be established, there will at be much to commend the arrangement. L. Sir Richard Cartwright has said that reciprocity can be best obtained by concurrent legislation and that coal would be a good article for the begin-ning. But a disadvantage of concur-rent legislation is that duties taken off is Se rent legislation is that duties taken of this year may be put on again next year. In this particular instance we have not even the beginning of con-current legislation, for the United States does not abolish the coal duty suggested the appointment to him. —The residence of Mr. G. W. Eaton, postmaster and merchant of Auburn, Kings Co., was destroyed by fire while Mr. Eaton and family were absent at church. The loss is very heavy, Mr. Eaton losing not only his house and furniture but also his books of ac-count and about $1400 in cash. In-sured $1000. part of a general economic polic as part of a general economic poincy, but only as an emergency measure for a limited time and in the form of a re-bate. Unless, therefore, there is a cor-responding emergency in Canada there is no occasion to enact a correspond-ing measure. The emergency in Can-ada is á demand for hard coal, and hard coal is already free ada is á demand for hard coal, and hard coal is already free. "It will be the duty of the Canadian Government and Parliament to deal with the coal tariff as if this coal re-bate had not been proposed. * *  Free coal for free coal for a long per-iod would probably be good policy for Canada and the United States, as the supply on each side of the line is con-veniently located for a market on the other. But temporary and emergency sured $1000: -Mrs. David Bath, who is offering her, furniture for sale as will be seen by a reference to our advertising col-umns, is about breaking up a long residence in or near Bridgetown, and intends going to reside with relatives in St. John. Miss Georgie Bath will take up a course at a business college. Both ladies have many friends who will regret their departure. -Rev. F. J. Bradebaw, and Miss guest of Mrs. L. D. Shafner for a few -The long-discussed Alaskan Bounddays. Mrs. Salter and family leave to-day to join Captain Salter at Pensacola, Florida. Miss Jennie Foster, after an extendof settlement. A treaty providing for rence of this question to a and in three weeks will sail for Eur-ope. After a three months tour three they will go to Kiating, China, where Mr. Bradshaw will resume his work as mixed tribunal of jurists, three of d visit with friends in Boston has re each side was signed by Sir Michae urned home Herbert, British ambassador, and Sec retary Hay at Washington on Satu sionary. day. The proposition is virtually the -Daley Saulnier, an employee i -Daley Saulnier, an employee in Gesner's mill on Phinney Mountain, back of Belleisle, met with a painful and severe accident Friday morning last. While working with the edging saw he slipped, and to save himself put his hand on the saw. The three-middle fingers of his left hand were cut off near the knuckles and his hand lacerated other ways. Drs. Barnaby and Armstrong dressed the wound. same as that brought forward three years ago by the American members of the Joint High Commission, which was rejected at that time by the British and Canadian representatives. The tribunal will determine the interpretation to be placed on the treaty of 1825 between Great Britain and Rus and Armstrong dressed the wound. -Fred Goodspeed who was acquitted tween British America and Alaska. The omission of a third disinterested party to act as umpire in the decision strengthens the effect of the ultimate settlement, as unless the discussion re-sults in a deadlock, at least one of the three jurists must be brought to con-cur in the opinions of the three on the other side. A peaceable solution of this much vexed question will not on-ly be in itself a matter of satisfaction to both nations, but will also be the sia, which defined the boundaries be

THE FRUIT GROWERS' ASSOCIATION. SLEIGHING PARTY. Dear Editor:-Editor of Monitor.

Editor of Monitor, Dear Sir:-I am very anxious that the first annual meeting of the Fruit Growers' Association to be held in our county, may prove a decided success. I was thinking of writing a short article for your paper urging the necessity of a large attendance of the Fruit Growers' the communication of Mr. G. C. Mil-ler, in reference to this matter in the last "Outlook," all of which I heartily in dorse, I do not see the necessity of another article but would consider it a favor if you would publish same in Editor of Monitor, Dear Editor:--Kindly grant me space in your paper to give your readers an account of a sleighing party from Margaret-ville to Cambridge and Brooklyn Street, Kings County. Just as the wast ob a relegated to the past. I might say, the day was perfect, the roads could not have been better a favor if you would publish same in a favor if you would publish same in the next issue of your valuable paper. Yours truly, S. SPURR. Vice-president for Annapolis Co. Appended is Mr. Miller's letter as published in the Outlook of 23rd inst:-I wish through the columns of your valuable paper to address a few lines in all kindness to my brother orcharding themselves of the privilege of assemversity, has received a call to Dayton, Ohio, and is likely to accept. He is now in New York to meet Rockefeller of Acadia.

<text>

-Ernest S. Schaffner, a native of Lawrencetown, for some years successfully engaged in copper mining in Oregon, died recently at his home there at the age of thirty-nine. L. P., and L. S. Schaffner, of Middleton and J. E. Schaffner, of Middleton and J. E. Schaffner, of Lawrencetown, arborothers.
-It has been rumoured in political circles that Attorney General Longley is to fill one of the vacancies in the Senate. To a reporter Mr. Longley said he had every reason to believe there was no authority for the rumour, and that no one in authority had even suggested the appointment to him.
-The residence of Mr. G. W. Eaton, SALE OF FURNITUR !!

o-day. Mrs. E. Bent, who has been ill is

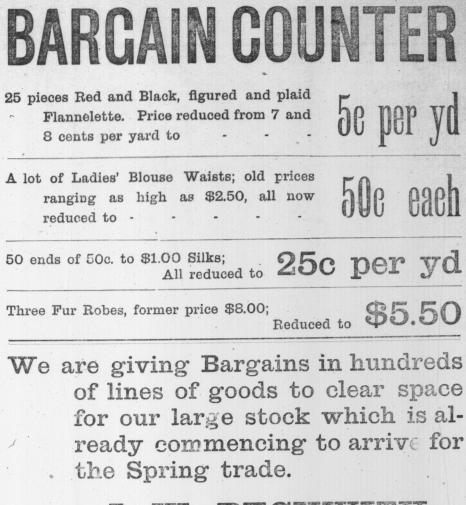

T. A. FOSTER.

G. C. MILLER. PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS. Miss Ada Munro leaves for Boston

Bridgetown, Jan. 2nd 1903. TO THE RATEPAYERS OF THE TOWN OF BRIDGETOWN:-Ladies and Gentlemen:-1000 Cana a To 120

oys' Reefers, regular price $3.00, selling at $1.80 nkets, all wool, regular price $3.50, selling at $2.25. lankets never sold less than 85c, selling at 65c. Ladies' Skirts, regular price $3.50 to $4.00, selling at $2.40. Judewear, all wool and woolen-fleeced, must go at cost. Lumbermon's Rubbers, 1 buckle, only $1.10. Men's Rubbers selling at cost. = Prices = We wish to dispose of balance of CHINA and GLASSWARE -and offer it at-25 per cent Discount This is a chance to get these goods at a very low figure. Call Also 10 pairs Acme Skates at 50c. R. SHIPLEY. Electoral Cards adies and Gentlemen:-Having been requested by a large number of the ratepayers of the Town to again become a candidate for May-or 1 have decided to do so and solicit your support at the polls. If elected 1 promise my best attention to the duties of this important office. L. D. SHAFNER. One-quarter off. FANCY DRESS GOODS. LADIES' UNDERWEAR HOSIERY. GLOVES. BLOUSES. FANCY RIBBONS. LACES. PRINTS. FLANNELETTES. FANCY SILKS. KNITTED WOOL GOODS. LADIES' FUR JACKETS.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 28, 1903

We have placed on our

7

$5000

SLAUGHTER

TO THE RATEPAYERS OF THE 20 to 50 per cent Discount

When we cut we cut deep!

VEILINGS.

One-third off. WRAPPERS. FLANNELETTE UNDERWEAR. HANDKERCHIEFS. LADIES' WATERPROOFS. FLANNELS. WRAPPERETTES. PARASOLS.

But temporary and emergency coal is another story. ary question is at last on the verge

Mr. Alfred Morse, of North Sydney, Mrs. Charles Shafner has been th -Rev F. J. Bradshaw and Miss

F. H. JOHNSON, Carleton Corne

The subscriber will sell at private sale this ek all her household furniture. An auction will be held on * riday, the ?0th two o'clock, to dispose of all articles not sold

MRS. DAVID BATH.

AT COST!

Winter Clothing

Consisting of Men's Reefers, Ove and Suits,

the difference. Let us awaken out of our sleep of quiet satisfaction over attainments of 25 years ago, and come-forward and take our proper positions. Do not miss one of the meetings to be held here. Join the association and work for it and with it, and 10 years hence we shall be more prosperous, and think far more of our farms and ourselves too, than we do to-day. Boots and Shoes.

20

The subscriber will dispose of his stock an stand, owing to old age, to anyone looking fo a good business.

per 0,

cent 30

and inspect.

oots and Shoes clearing below cost. ar Remember the place where you save money JACOBSON & COHEN BROS. The Original Bargain Store. QUEEN STREET, BRIDGETOWN. Reduced

REMOVED

Please take notice that on this late we shall remove our office to

W. I. Troop's meat market for the winter months, where we shall be pleased to take your order for coal

J. H. LONGMIRE & SON

OUR BIG

SLAUGHTER SALE

Will commence January 8th

ave reduced our stock to prices that will mov

Men's Ulsters, regular price $8.00, selling at $4.50

Men's Overcoats, regular price $7.00, selling at $4.50. Men's Reefers, regular price $6.75, selling at $4.00.

oys' Suits, regular price $2.75, selling at $1.75.

them quick,

Owing to the mild weather and heavy stock we

BRIDGETOWN,

Dec. 23rd, 1902.

J. W. BECKWITH.

to both nations, but will also be the removal of a stumbling block in the path of the much to be desired friendly relations between the two countrie

..Germany's aggressive movements in Venezuela during the week are being interpretated as emphasizing her evident intention to involve Great Britain in a quarrel with the United States. The German naval authori ties have attempted to destroy the -Mrs. Mary Thompson, a well-known and respectable colored woman, died here last Thursday at the age of nine-ty-four. She was born in Richmond, Virginia in slavery. After her emanci-pation she came north, and lived as a comestic in a number of families in San Carlo fortifications, to capture a gunboat and to interrupt the passage of supplies. These acts are considered an affront to the Washingto government, which is striving to make domestic in a number of families in this county, and afterwards married. She was a widow, leaves no children, and was possessed of a small estate of which Mr. W. A. Craig and Rev. F. M. Voung are avanders. A property in ace. Henry Norman, who is one of the ablest critics of foreign affairs in the House of Commons, points out that although the Munroe Doctrine has been formally recognized by Grea oung are executors. A property in aglewood has been deeded to the Bap-Britain, it has not been recognized by st minister's annuity fund.

Germany, and nobody who follow tist minister's annuity fund. —The Union meetings which are being continued this week are growing in in-terest. A most impressive meeting was that held last evening. The Baptist vestry was unable to hold those who gathered and the large church was thrown open, which was nearly filled. The meeting to-night will be in the Methodist church and the subject, "The Christ Life," to-morrow evening in the Methodist church, the subject "God's requirements." On Friday evening the meeting will again be held in the Bap-tist church. These meetings are caus-ing a profound impression and many are seeking the better way. German opinion closely doubts for a moment that a misunderstanding be tween this country and America would be a matter for sorrow in Germany

Minister Bowen is confident of securing a guarantee from Venezuela which wi warrant the immediate raising of the blockade.

THE FREE COAL BILL.

The following is the full text of the ree coal bill:

-As the westward bound expres

The following is the full text of the free coal bill: An Act to provide rebate of duties on coal, and for other purposes. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assem-bled, that the Secretary of the Treas-ury be, and ge is hereby authorized and required to make full rebate of duties imposed, by law on all coal of every form and description imported into the United States from foreign countries for the period of one year from and after the passage of this Act. -As the westward bound express from Halifax was approaching the sta-tion at Middleton on Wednesday last, the tire of one of the driving wheels of the locomotive broke and smashed the floor of the cab, bringing the train to a standstill. Engineer Taylor was thrown from the cab, over the tender and landing him in the ditch. He was related up unconscious and carried to WN. We regret to state there is no improvement in the condition of Mrs. W. H. McKenzie, since she suffered an apoplectic stroke last week.

Mr. Ralph Messenger leaves to-day for Sussex, N. B., to attend the Maritime Association. Mr. M. makes this trip as complimentary from the Maritime Farmer.
Mr. Harold Campbell, of Philadelphia who has been spending a week with his grandparents, Hon. J. and Mrs. John Aldous, will on his return home take a position as instructor on a training ship for boys.
A Jackonsville, Florida, paper says: J. A. McGinire is entertaining at the Ponce de Leon for a few days Hon L. D. Shafner, Mayor of Bridgetown, Nova Sectia, and a leading Canadian ship-Discount Sales! MISS LOCKETT vill sell the balance of her Winter stock at a very large discount or the already low prices. Hats and Corsets a specialty. Don't Forget touch, and his next stopping place will be Mobile. be settled by special legislation.
A bold theft took place here last Friday afternoon. A fur coat was taken from the doorway of W. D.
Lockett's shop by a man named Melbourne Sabeans, a middle aged man who had been soliciting alms about slip away with his booty and left for St. John, but a despatch from Bridgetown to the chief of police at St.
John being acted upon, he was arrested as he was leaving the stolen garment. He will be returned to Bridgetown to day.
M. M. M. T. T. M. M. State and the stolen garment is the returned to Bridgetown to day. B. M. WILLIAMS' is the place to get the requisites for a Good Dinner H. Bishop, Esq., of Paradise:— George E. Ricker, formerly of Wake-field, who has been successful as pro-prietor of Hotel Woodbridge, West Somerville, for several years past, has purchased forty acres of land border-ing on Long Pond in Brewster (Cape Cod), and on one of the best portions of the property he will build at once a forty-room summer hotel, which will be equipped with all the-very latest modern improvements. Already the cellar is in progress of excavation, and He always has the largest and best stock of rkeys, Geese, Ducks, Chickens, etc., to m. Al-o the best Beef, Mutton, modern improvements. Already the cellar is in progress of excavation, and Mr. Ricker expects to have the hotel ready for occupancy next July. He says that Brewster is one of the finest summer resorts in New England. Mr., Ricker was formerly one of Wakefield's Selectmen, and at another time had charge of our highway department. He was well liked while a resident of this town, and his many friends here will be glad to learn of his increasing suc-cess in the hotel business. NOTICE! s in the hotel business. ware business to Wm. R. Calder. A ST. JOHN MAN IN HALIFAX. I wish to thank my many custom-

A ST. JOHN MAN IN HALIFAX. J. S. Harding, of St. John, was at the Halifax Hotel on Saturday. He told a Chronicle man that he does not understand why jeople who bake bread are foolish enough to use ordinary flours when they can get Ogilvio's. He says that when one considers the fact that it makes so many more loaves to the barrel than ordinary flours and that the bread is stronger and there-fore has more nourishment, it will be readily seen that there is a distinct advantage in using Ogilvio's. Ogilvio's flour is now the favorite in South Africa as well as in Canada, and in Bermuda and the British West Indies it has captured the market.

LADIES' JACKETS. CHEAP FURS. LADIES' SKIRTS. UNDERSKIRTS. LADIES' LINED KID GLOVES. ODD LINES CORSETS.

ONE-THIRD OFF.

TO THE RATEPAYERS OF THE Men's Undershirts, Men's Drawers, Men's Top Shirts, Sweaters, Cardigans, TOWN OF BRIDGETOWN:-Ladies and Gentlemen:-Mufflers, Lined Gloves, Caps, Colored Shirts, Men's Suits, Boys' and Chil-dren's Suits, Men's and Boy's Ulsters, Overcoats and Reefers, and Men's

SALE FOR CASH ONLY.

Everybody knows when we advertise discounts we do just what we say, and do not try and get ound it, but give plain, straight discounts which everybody can see are honest

