A PLEASANT EVENING

A Party of Forty-five Ladies and Gentlemen Enjoyed a Dinner at the St. James Hotel

One of the pleasantest events in the social history of Bridgetown took place last Saturday evening at the St. James Hotel when a party of forty-five ladies and gentlemen enjoyed a well served dinner in the spacious dining room, the menu being an excellent one. Rev. M. S. Richardson, the popular pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist Church, was selected as toastmaster.

The after dinner speeches represented the press, the local bankers, the medical profession, the local manufacturers, the business men, the merchant marine and farming industry. The speeches were short but interesting. All referred to the general good derived from such occasions, believing that these events were of special benefit to the town and it was the unanimous impression among those present that they should occur oftener. Some suggested a club being formed to be called the "Commodore Hart." This with other suggestions may be carried out later. All the speakers expressed great satisfaction with the service at the hotel and wished Mr. and Mrs. MacPherson, the proprietors, many years of success and prosperity.

A feature of the evening was a story of "The Black Watch" related by Lieut. Greenlun, a member of that battalion, who recently returned from overseas.

The Death of Mrs. Alice L. Dennison

The funeral of Mrs. Alice L. Dennison, wife of Dr. Archibald S. Dennison, was held on Monday afternoon at her late residence, 7 Franklin St. Rev. Walter John Sherman, pastor of the First M. E. church, conducted the services and Mrs. Isabelle Butler Ramsdell rendered "Sometime, We Will Understand," "Still, Still With Thee" and "There is a Land on High." There were many beautiful floral tokens of love and esteem from relatives and friends, including pieces from the Ladies' Aid society, Standard Bearers, Circle of Ten, Ladies' Aid society of the First M. E. church and the Starr club, of which she was a member. The interment was at Pine Grove cemetery.

(We reprint the above from the Lynn Daily Item, Dr. A. S. Dennison was, for some time, proprietor of a drug business in Bridgetown and has many friends here who extend sympathy in his sad bereavement.)

TOWN COUNCIL

New Town Clerk and Chief of Police Appointed Monday Evening

At a regular meeting of the town council held Monday evening, the lowest tender for town clerk was accepted, and Mr. Willie Burns was appointed town clerk and treasurer at a salary of $450 per year. Mr. Burns is to furnish an office, vault, etc.

Sgt. Maj. George Gill, D. C. M., was appointed chief of police together with the usual duties coupled with that office at a salary of $550 per year, his duties to begin March 10th. Harry Ruggles, Esq., the retiring town clerk, after a faithful service of nine years, was offered the office of town solicitor at a salary of $150. Mr. Burns' duties begin April 1st.

Unless the boys cut out the dangerous habit of jumping on and off moving trains, especially freights, near the Bridgetown station, there will occur a serious, if not a fatal, accident in the near future, and it will not be the fault of the train men. It is time the parents took some action.

Dr. Frederick W. Maynor, the eminent Toronto eye specialist, rendered valuable assistance to the choir at last Sunday's services in the Bridgetown Baptist church, which was greatly appreciated by the members, and enjoyed by the entire congregation.

Hon. O. T. Daniels, of Bridgetown, and Hon. E. H. Armstrong, of Yarmouth, are members of the general reception committee at Halifax to welcome the return of the Royal Canadian Regiment.

Mr. Robert Lowe, of O. P. Cove, and his household rooms took charge of Mr. Miller's stay in Annapolis on Saturday. Mr. Miller having been seriously injured in an auto accident.

Messrs. G. O. Thies and Shirley Miller were passengers to Kentville Monday, returning yesterday by auto.

Rev. M. S. Richardson will preach at Inglewood next Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Our Heroes Returning

The town was again decorated in bunting yesterday in honor of the return of Pte. Gordon Dargie, son of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Dargie, Bridge-

town East and Pte. Harry Elliott,

Paradise. Many of our citizens thought that these men were arriving from Halifax instead of via St. John and

Digby and therefore met the noon train instead of the 1:45. We are always pleased to welcome the boys returning from the front but in many cases the citizens have little or no notice of their arrival until train time.

Mrs Arthur Lyett, of Kentville, Yarmouth Co, recently spent a week with her parents, Mr and Mrs W W Troop.

Influenza has made its appearance in the neighbourhood and a number of families are afflicted. It is a mild type, however and so far no serious cases are reported. Churches and schools are closed for the present.

Miss Christina Willett, who for six years has been a popular saleslady in the dry goods store of Ether & Fuglesy, Annsbury, resigned her position there in Dec. and since then she has been visiting her parents, Mr and Mrs J. Beed Willett. She left on Saturday for Halifax where she has a similar situation.

The W M A S held their Crusade meeting at the home of the Treasurer Mrs Arnold Eaton, on the afternoon of Feb 12th. In the absence of the Pres, Pastor Brindley had charge of the meeting. The meeting was largely attended and as a result of the special effort, ten new members were added to the society. Tea was served at the close of the meeting. Collections for mission $4.50.

Lieut C W Cook R F C who for nine months was a prisoner of war in Germany, arrived here Feb 11th from St. John, having sailed on the "Covarian". Before going overseas Lieut Cook was student pastor of the Baptist Church there having left his studies at Acadia to enlist. His many friends here gave him a warm welcome on the evening of his return in a public reception at the hall, addresses by Sergt McWilliam, Pastor Brindley and Lieut Cook interspersed with music. Dea. Charles Withers welcomed Mr Cook back again. Some of his many and trying experiences he has promised to tell to the public in a lecture in the near future. While here he was a guest at the home of Mrs H C Eaton. He left on Friday past for Guysboro, his old home.

Kentville Advertiser: Practically the last apple shipment of the season consisting of 9300 barrels is now being moved to Halifax for shipment to England.
