

rica, he would himself make one among those who would visit them, old as he is, being now, I think, six or seven years, at least, above fifty."

From the whole, it appears that the inhabitants of North America, in general, believe in the existence of a Welsh Tribe of Indians. I hope that the suspicions of fastidious European Historians and Critics, are, or will be, removed.

POSTSCRIPT.