Principally a compilation from Keckewelder and other works. North American Review, XIX-464.

"The author is absolutely without any qualifications whatever for the task he has undertaken. The literary composition of his volume is below criticism, and its only value consists in copious extracts from an account of the Indian Nations by John Heckewelder. The compiler's other assistants are a Dr. Jarvis, of New York, and a Mr. Daponceau, of Philadelphia." — Quarterly Review, XXXI. 80.

Some copies of the New York edition are dated 1825, but otherwise identical.
