AN EVER INCREASING DEMAND

Wide-awake business men appreciate the good sterling quality in everything. Especially is this true in so far as it concerns their office help. They recognize that a staff of incapables will soon wreck any business or a good, reliable, expert staff would build it up.

Remington Business College graduates have made good. There is a constantly increasing demand for book-keepers, stenographers and typists, Remington College trained. Get the Remington College training and your position is assured.
