

meetings it is difficult to estimate, but of one thing we are assured—there is a revival of missionary spirit in our college.

THE Theological and Literary Society met on the evening of December the 9th to consider Dr. Watson's "Mind of the Master." Mr. John McIntosh opened the discussion with a paper in which he reviewed the salient points of the different chapters of this book. Several joined in the discussion, and while they acknowledged the beauty of expression and the value of very much in the book yet most expressed disappointment with it

COLLEGE NOTES.

"COMPLIMENTS of the season."

REV. F. L. JOBB was visiting in the city, and gave us a call.

THE graduates are having their class picture taken at Notman's.

WE are glad to learn that M. F. Grant and Adams Archibald are much improved.

FIVE of the graduating class have just taken the M. A. examinations in Dalhousie Collge.

KNOX COLLEGE MONTHLY has ceased publication, being absorbed by The Westminster.

WE direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of L. Higgins & Co., shoe store, on the second page of the cover. Read 83 Barrington St., instead of 61 as in ad.

REV. A. M. THOMSON, '95, of Margaree, C. B., was married last June to Miss Ida Ogilvie, of Little River, Halifax Co. The ceremony took place in the church and was performed by the pastor, Rev. Jas. Polley, '95. Best wishes.

REV. JAS. ROSS, '86, the energetic superintendent of missions in St. John presbytery, paid us a short visit when in town attending the Home Mission Committee meeting. He reports good work done by our boys during the summer.
