

Examinations as the case may be. At the first Law School Examination to be held in May, 1890, fourteen Scholarships in all will be offered for competition, seven for those who pass such examination in lieu of their First Intermediate Examination, and seven for those who pass it in lieu of their Second Intermediate Examination, viz., one of one hundred dollars, one of sixty dollars, and five of forty dollars for each of the two classes of students.

Unless required to attend the school by the rules just referred to, the following Students-at-Law and Articled Clerks are exempt from attendance at the School:

1. All Students-at-Law and Articled Clerks attending in a Barrister's chambers or serving under articles elsewhere than in Toronto, and who were admitted prior to Hilary Term, 1889.

2. All graduates who on the 25th day of June, 1889, had entered upon the second year of their course as Students-at-Law or Articled Clerks.

3. All non-graduates who at that date had entered upon the fourth year of their course as Students-at-Law or Articled Clerks.

In regard to all other Students-at-Law and Articled Clerks, attendance at the School for one or more terms is compulsory as provided by the Rules numbers 155 to 166 inclusive.

Any Student-at-Law or Articled Clerk may attend any term in the School upon payment of the prescribed fees.

Every Student-at-Law and Articled Clerk before being allowed to attend the School, must present to the Principal a certificate of the Secretary of the Law Society shewing that he has been duly admitted upon the books of the Society, and that he has paid the prescribed fee for the term.

The Course during each term embraces lectures, recitations, discussions, and other oral methods of instruction, and the holding of moot courts under the supervision of the Principal and Lecturers.

During his attendance in the School, the Student is recommended and encouraged to devote the time not occupied in attendance upon lectures, recitations, discussions or moot courts, in the reading and study of the books and subjects prescribed for or dealt with in the course upon which he is in attendance. As far as practicable, Students will be provided with room and the use of books for this purpose.

The subjects and text-books for lectures and examinations are those set forth in the following Curriculum:
