ARCHBISHOP O'CONNOR AT ST. PAUL'S.

ARCHEBSHOP O'CONNOR AT ST. PAUL'S.

Sunday last will be a day to dwell in the ne mory of the people of St. Paul's parish. It was the occasion of the first colleal visit of the new Archbishop to the parish clurch to administer the sacrament of confirmation, and it was appropriate that St. Paul's should have this honour, as, in the words of Archbishop O'Connor himself when addressing the congregation, he "regarded it as the cradle of religion in this part of the province."

The flourishing condition of the faith in the old parish of St. Paul's to-day was attested by the large class of candidates prepared to receive the Sacrament. The class numbered but few short of two hundred, and the careful instruction of all reflects credit upon the parish priest, Rev. J. L. Hand, and his assistants Fathers Cline and Finnegan. The appearance of the children was also a pleagant feature of the occasion. Uniformly dressed in the manner that tradition and love for the great sacrament of Confirmation have together endeared to the religious sons of Catholics, the children of St. Paul's furthermore presented in their orderly demeanour what discipline can accompilsh in the mannagement of numbers of young people.

His Grace celebrated Mass at 8 o'clock, at which the children confirmed later in the day received holy communion from the hands of the Archbishop. The church was crowded with a large congregation of the faithrial and about 500 received Holy Communion.

The children's choir sang appropriate hymns during the celebration of a large congregation of the fathful and about 500 received Holy Communion.

The children's choir sang appropriate harmonic steep Mans during the celebration of the Mass.

At 11 o'clock the Archbishop in cope and mitre attended by Rev. Father Hand and Father McBrady, assisted at solemn high mass sung by Rev. Father Father Cline, with Fathers Healy and Finnegan deacon and sub-deacon Mozart's XII Mass was rendered by the choir under the direction of Mr. Harry Troman, the offertory selection was sung by Miss Tessie Flanagan, who is a member of St. Paul's parish. At the conclusion of the Mass IIIs Grace examined the children in cate-chism in a manner most instructive to the congregation. The Archbishop exhibit the result of his examination and congratitated the parents, teachers, and priests on the success of their work in the recent of the congration of the Sacra-at which we have an attendance of 700 children, receiving a thoroughly Catholle training, and peace and harmony reign in the congregation. During the 700 chas seven years a sum exceeding $50,000 has been paid by the parish on principal and interest of church debt, and on outlays for necessary improvements. Much of the credit for this happy state of things is due to the energy and ability of our beloved pastor, Rev. Father Hand, and his worthy assistants, Again thanking your Grace for your presence amongst us to confirm our children in their holy faith, and begging your Grace's blessing on ourselves, our families, and our parish, we are you Grace's most loying and loyal children in Christ, our Lord the members of St. Paul's parish.'

In reply his Grace heartly thanked the congregation for this expression of good-will two uto him. This was not, he said, the first time he had learned good-will tow ind him. This was not, he said, the first time he had learned of the strong faith of the people of St. Paul's parish. Through a great many italis and difficulties the had been faithful to the church, and had shown that it was to be loyal and true to the Catholic body. It was great encouragement to him to undertoking his new work to find that parish. In such a flowishing condition Their work was a great credit to their pastor. They had a good priests, and good priests as a great credit to their pastor. They had a good priest, and good priests with a great consolation for him than to know that he had the hat there was no greater consolation for him than to know that he had the affection of his people. Their chuich would be a monument to their liberality. He kn, w how much was needed of the gent north of the people to build fine crun ches. They had done that, Good bless them for it. His Giace concluded by giving his blesting on the arish, which he said, he is garded as the cradite of religion in this part of the province.

During the presentation of the address a zeone on more of the members of the congregation were at the front of the church, in addition to the committee, who were as foliows—Messis.

What might be termed the closing exercises of tree month of May tools place on Sunday last at vespers, the pastor delivering an eloquent discourse, followed by a procession of the members of the sodality of the Blessed Virsin. Father Waish extolled the virtues of our Blessed Lady, dwelling at length upon the great hour shown been being selected above all other creatures to be the Mother of God, and the consequent love and veneration; we should have for her, which should be second only to that given her Divine Son.

He exhorted his hearers to have frequent recourse to her in prayer—knowing how all-powerful the prayers of
