The Peterborough papers of January 23, say Ven. Archdeacon Casey, who for the past eight tars has perferred the duties of Rector of St Peter's Cathedral, left on Saturday for Lindsay, having been transferred to the charge of that tevn.

Ever since the announcement of his removal from tova Ven. Archdeacon Casey has been the recipient of many expressions of regret at his leaving, and many and sucere expressions of good will for his future. The various societies for which he has labored during his residence in Peterborough, the educational institutions with which he has been identified, have taken ad-vantage of Ven. Archdeacon Casey's intended departure, to express to him their appreciation of his efforts on behalf of his people On Friday in the Cathedral the last of these presentations was made, when at the conclusion of the benediction, Ven. Archdeacon Casey was presented with an address and a purse of $300 from the congregation. THE ADDRESS,

The address was read by Mr. D. O'Connell, and the presentation of the $300 was made by Mr. H. LeBrun, on behalf of the congregation.

The committee which had charge of the getting up of the presentation advanced to the front of the Cathedral and Mr. O'Connell read the address in a clear and audible voice.

The cathedral was filled with members of the congregation, and the service was very impressive.

The address was as appended: To the Very Peverend Archdeacon Don mack Jeremanh Casey, Rector of St. Peter's C. Gedral: Very Reverent and Dear Sir-Eight years ago you assumed the responsible duties as Recter of St. Peter's Cathedral, and during that time your inde-fatigable zeal and your great earnest-ness and tender solicitude in the spir-litual and temperal welfare of your parishioners have won for you their love and admiration. Now upon the eve of your departure they cannot allow you to leave them without giving expression to the deep sense of regret they feel at their loss and the appre-ciation and gre itade they have for the great benefits they have derived from your able and efficient adminis-

Manifold are the duties of the Rector of this large parish, and great the work to be done to meet the needs of its people. But with assiduous care and never-ceasing interest have you discharged these auties and performed this work. The Catholic Associations and Societies established in this construction by gregation by your predecessors have been benefitted by your guiding hand and wise counsel, and in them have been taught and practiced with in-creasing efficiency the duties and responsibilities of Catholic men and women. The great cause of temperance has received your kindest encouragement, and under your supervision has been established and fostered St Peter's Total Abstinence Association, which has worked incalculable good amongst ye . . rishloners, and in-creased in their midst in an eminent degree, that contentment and prosper-it; characteristic of a sober and in-

Under your administration has been exceed the House of Providence, a Home for God's poor, where the aged, the orphan and the afflicted may find a refuge in which not only are their temporal needs provided for with tender solicitude, but they have ad-ministered to them the consolation of their holy religious. ministered to them the consolation of their holy religion. The Cathedral Church in which you have so often offered up the holy sacrifice of the Mass has, during your incumbency, been beautified in, its interior decoration, and made a temple worthy of its sacred character. Your zeal in the cause of learning, in the moral and intellectual training of the young is conlectual training of the young, is evi-denced by the efficiency of our schools of which you have been for many years the painstaking and assiduous superintendent, and in whose well-being you have always taken the deeping you have always taken the ceep-est inferest. And by your co-opera-tion you have had a large share in almost freeing from debt all these warlous institutions, provided for the spiritual and temporal needs, not only of the parish, but to a great extent of the Diocese. These institutions have grown and increased in our midst, and by the wise administration of their affairs, their burden was scarcely felt by the people, till now the last vestige of the debt is about to be wiped away. These are the external evidences of the religious and temporal progress made during your incumbency and are but the means to the spiritual, the

They will long endure to your memory, nor will the poor and the afflicted of the parish soon forget the kind paster whose generous hand and kindly heart so often soothed them in their afflictions, and helped them in their troubles

But if there is one quality by which you will be longest remembered, it is the fatherly interest you have taken in the children of the Parish. Their training, the formation of their character, were ever the objects of your tenderest care. Their education, that education so potent in its results, the education received and implanted in the minds of the young, under the guidance of religion inculcated with moral precepts and Catholic doctrines. In future years many a young man of the Parish will look back to his schoolboy days with the fondest recollection and find there the foundation of his temporal success and his spiritual well-being.

And the members of the Parish generally, so greatly benefited by your administration, how will they remember you? By the sympathy and kindness with which you pointed out to them the duties of their life, by the clearness and force with which you taught them the doctrine of their religion, by the fervor and zeal with which you stirred in their hearts a fidelity to their church and a love for their creator. These inestimable gifts to your people will never be effaced from their minds and always in their prayers, in their homes and before the altar, will they remetheir Spiritual Father. remember you as

They will endeavor to show by their actions at all times that the seed which you have sown has not fallen on barren soil, and they trust that sometimes in the holy sacrifice of the Mass you will not forget the congregation amongst whom you lived so many years, and who regret so much many years, and who regret so much to part from you It is true they grieve at your departure, but their good Bishop, who so wisely presides over the Diocese, knows best where to place the laborers in that part of the Lord's viney and entrusted to his care To his will they bow confiding as faithful children, in his judgment and leve for his flock.

In conclusion, very reverend sir, let.

enerable Archdeacon Casey, Chaplain of Young Ladies' Sodality, St. Peter's Cathedral, Peterborough

Rev and Dearly-Loved Father — With feelings of deepest sorrow we, the members of the Sodality, come this evening to bid you a sorrowful farewell and to express in words all too feeble the sense of loss that weighs heavily upon us You have been so much to us for the past eight yearsthe faithful guide, the wise counsel-lor, the earnest and loving friend, that our hearts wel too full for utterance at the thought of parting.

Still we would be devoid of feeling were we to allow his opportunity to pass without at last showing some manifestation of 1 pect lowards that Father who has labored so zealously and untiringly in our behalf.

and untringly in our behalf.

The deep interest you have taken in our Sodality, your kind words, your sympathetic looks, your consoling manner, are to us golden memories of the past, but they speak more clearly to the members of the Sodality than any written record of your life.

It has been your desire that we should be well instructed in the truths and teachings of our holy religion, and with this end in view you have never ceased to instruct us in all that never ceased to instruct us in all that pertains to our spiritual welfare You have ever held before the mind of the Children of Mary, that model of women, and at each recurring Feast in her hours were the spiritual to the contract of the contract her honor, you have spared no pains to place vividly before our minds her admirable qualities, and try to instil in our souls the love of that Mother, and desire to model our life after

And what is better still, your daily life has ever been a shining example in the practice of those Christian virtues which you have inculcated by your carnest and assidious teaching. Counting your own labor, your own sacrifices, as nothing; the glory of God and the salvation of souls were your sole incentive. We hope that we sufficiently appreciate so lofty mo-tives, which prompted such a faithful performance of duty on your part, and that we fully recognize your many claims on our gratitude for the untold benefits conferred upon us

The memory of your kindly deeds and loving words are deeply engraved on our hearts - neither time nor abtime Will ever efface

You may rest assured Rev Father that our humble petitions will ever ascend to the throne of the Most High for your temporal and spiritual guidance, in return we would ask one favor that in the stillness of the Sanctuary you would remember the young ladies of the Sodality of Peterborough We earnestly hope that God may bless you with health and strength to labor long and faithfully in His vinevard and that in your new field of labor you may be surrounded by friends whose hearts are as true as are the hearts of those assembled here to-night.

We ask you, dear Father, to accept this fur collar as a token of gratitude and appreciation from the devoted members of the Sodality.

We have the great comfort in knowing that you are not far removed from us, and in conclusion we say, far Father 1900 members you will Rev. Father, "Come, when you will, there's a welcome for you!"

THE ADDRESS To Venerable Archdeacon Casey.

Rev. and Dear Father-In meeting here to-night to say farewell, we are brought back, many of us, to our infancy, others to our youth - to the time you left us before - and if we were then grieved at the removal of the young and zealous curate from our midst, how much more deeply affected we are on the departure of our Venerable Rector. Since your removal to Peterborough eight years ago, many enterprises have been undertaken for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the parish, but probably none has received more attention, or has been more kindly fostered by you than St. Peter's Total Abstinence Society. Hence we desire to thank you as a body for the deep interest you have taken in our thriving Society, and also for the kind manner in which you have helped us in our undertakyou have helped us in our undertak-ings. It was always a source of great joy to us to see your pleasant countenance, and when there was an entertainment of any kind your cordial encouragement endeared you us all. Dear Father, we ask you to of accept these gauntlets as a token the T. A. S.

Hoping that you will always re-member us in your progress, we wish you God speed, and a happy New

COULDN'T WALK FOR YEARS

An Arnprior Man is Thankful that Now He is Able to Work

Often found Himself uuable to Lie down without the Greatest Pain —Cured by Dodd's Kidney Pilis.

Arnprior, Ont., Jan. 27 .- (Special A very remarkable cure of Back ache and Kidney Trouble has just been brought to notice at Basin Depot near here.
Mr. J. II. Martin suffered for over eighteen years with Lame Back so that he actually couldn't walk or he down without enduring the most dreadful pain. He tried many medicines without getting relief, and was very much discouraged.

Dodd's Kidney Pills were recommended to him, and he commenced a treatment, and improved very fast from the first. As the treatment continued the improvement increased until he was able to go about his work as well as ever

The theory so often advanced that the Kidneys are the most important organs of the body and that a large percentage of the sickness and pain which humanity suffers, is due to im-perfect Kidney action seems to be amply proven in this particular case, for as soon as Dodd's Kidney P'lls regu-lated and restored the natural action of the Kidneys all Mr. Martin's troubles left him at once.

Many remarkable cures by Dodd's Kidney Pills have been published, but certainly none as wonderful as that of Mr. Martin

He has written a letter giving the facts of the case, and his announcement that he was able to work com fortably once more after such a prolonged period of suffering, has started people wondering if there is any case of Lame Back, Rheumatism or other Kidney Trouble that Dodd's Kidney Pills will not cure.

Gentlemen: I write this testimonial from a sense of duty, having tested the wonderful effect of your Asthmalene, for the cure of Asthma. My wile has been affilieted with spasmodic asthma for the past 12 years. Having exhausted my own skill as well as many others, I chanced to see your sign upon your windows on 130th street, New York, I at once obtained a bottle of Asthmalene. My wife commenced taking it about the first of November. I very soon noticed a radical improvement. After using one bottle her Asthma has disappeared and she is entirely free from all symptoms. I fee that I can consistently recommend the medicine to all who are afflicted with this distressing disease.

Yours respectfully,
