

are far above wealth as the world values it. He was the son of the late Rev. David Caw, Presbyterian minister at Paris, Ont. He was for forty years an office bearer in the Canada Bible Society. He was also for many years a member of the School Board and a director of the West Williams Agricultural Society. The schools and business places were closed on the afternoon of the funeral, and the bell on the town hall was tolled while the procession passed from the church to the cemetery. Rev. Mr. Carriere, of Grand Bend; Rev. Mr. Lochead, of London, a former pastor, and Rev. A. Graham, B.A., conducted the service. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. T. J. Wilson, and by his nephew, Dr. David C. Wilson.

---

J. P. BRUCE, M.D.

Dr. J. P. Bruce, Colorado Street and Fortieth Avenue, Chicago, died 23rd December in University Hospital of pneumonia, after an illness of three weeks. Dr. Bruce, who was the second son of Mr. James Bruce, Egbert, near Barrie, Canada, was born thirty-five years ago in Peel Township, County of Bruce, Ontario, and in early childhood removed with his parents to Newton Robinson, Simcoe County, where he obtained his primary education and matriculation certificate. He then went to Chicago to study medicine and after a successful course began the practice of his chosen profession, which at his death had already become lucrative. He had great energy and perseverance. He was unmarried and is survived by his father, two brothers, W. J. Bruce, DD.S., Kincardine; Mr. H. E. Bruce, of the Carson-Pirie-Scott & Company, Chicago, and one sister, Mrs. C. E. McEachern, "The Willard," Toronto. The two brothers were with him when he died. The remains were removed for interment at Newton Robinson.

---

HANS STEVENSON, M.D.

Dr. Stevenson died at Wakefield, Que., on 4th November, 1911. He was in his 59th year. He had practised for many years in Wakefield. He is survived by his widow and six children.

---

J. E. TYNDALL, M.D.

Dr. Tyndall had lived and practised in Brandon, Manitoba, for a number of years. He was well known there and highly respected. He was in his 46th year. He was a native of the County of York, Ontario, where he received his education, and studied medicine in Toronto.